

Fierce Duel Near Shanghai Among Chinese, Japanese

Skirmishes Begin When Peace Conference Fails — Chinese Blame Japanese "Aggression" for New S. Affairs.

SEVERAL FIRES

Artillery Bombardment Starts Big Fires in Shanghai—Japanese Rush Bluejackets.

(By The Associated Press.)

The what and why of the Shanghai warfare:

An estimated 7,000 Japanese bluejackets and "thousands" of Chinese regular army troops are skirmishing in Chinese areas north of the Shanghai international zone. A Chinese and Japanese artillery duel set fire to parts of the area. A Japanese warship bombarded and set fire to a Chinese wharf north of the main city.

The troops entrenched and skirmishes started early today after a "peace" conference failed. Japanese said Chinese violated terms of the 1932 Shanghai truce by sending an army into Shanghai. Chinese blamed Japanese "aggression," citing the concentration of 21 Japanese warships at Shanghai wharves and the landing of many bluejackets.

Chinese and Japanese have been at swords points in Shanghai since July 7, when fighting broke out in northern Hopei province. The tension increased when the Japanese army drove out the Chinese soldiers and took control of the province and the cities of Peking and Tientsin.

It reached a climax at Shanghai when a Chinese peace preservation corps member and a Japanese naval officer and seaman were killed in an encounter Monday at a West Shanghai airport.

Poon the Japanese warships arrived and landed reinforcements. Then, yesterday, the Chinese regulars started pouring in to the city from the north. It was not known who fired the first shot today.

Shanghai is a city of nearly 3,500,000, including 60,000 foreigners. A United States marine detachment of 1,050 men and garrisons of other nations have the duty of protecting the international zone, where approximately 1,000 Americans live.

Duel Near Kiangwan

Shanghai, Aug. 13 (AP)—Heavy artillery duel between Chinese and Japanese batteries in the vicinity of Kiangwan, a few miles north of this city of 3,500,000 people, indicated today that major hostilities had broken out between the opposed forces.

Immediately huge clouds of smoke began pouring skyward from the thickly populated villages in the northern suburbs as though countless shells had been started by the shelling.

It was not known whether all the American residents of the area, caught by the rapid concentration of the Chinese troops, had been evacuated from the battle zone.

The United States Asiatic fleet was ordered into action to protect American citizens at the first word that Japanese marines had clashed with the vanguard of the advancing Chinese 87th and 88th divisions.

The Kiangwan area was cut off to all but military traffic, which was clogging the roads to the north. The sound of firing was loud in Shanghai.

Semi-official Japanese sources said that the Chinese were shelling the Japanese headquarters, which is on the eastern side of the I. R. C. race course from Kiangwan.

The heavy firing which began in late afternoon climaxed a long day of intermittent fighting with machine guns and rifles between the Chinese and Japanese entrenched in fortified positions in the Shanghai and Hongkew sectors. This zone fringes the international settlement on the north and is just south of the Kiangwan area.

2 Get Mild Terms In O'Connell Case Eight 28-77 Years

Binghamton, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—Two confessed participants in the 1933 kidnaping of John J. O'Connell, Jr., were sentenced to prison for terms of three years, and 49 months, respectively today, in comparison with sentences ranging from 28 to 77 years imposed on eight men convicted of the crime.

The penalties were imposed on Frank Fischer, 53, and Thomas Burke, 39, guards of O'Connell in the Hoboken, N. J., hideout where he was held 23 days, by Federal Judge Frederick H. Bryant. Both men testified for the government in an 11-week trial that ended last night with a "guilty" verdict against their eight associates in the crime.

Fischer and Burke were sentenced to Northeastern Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa. Fischer for three years and Burke for four years and one month. Judge Bryant told them "my sentence is going to be as lenient as I feel it is possible to make it."

Convicted by a federal jury after less than three hours of deliberation on 11 weeks of testimony, the eight men, severely shackled to each other, pleaded visibly as the verdict—"guilty on the charges"—was spoken.

A few minutes later Judge Frederick H. Bryant pronounced sentence on Manning Stewell, 35, John Oley, 36, and Percy Geary, 34, of Albany, and Charles Harrison, 32, Thomas Dugan, 35, George Gargulio, 31, John McGlone, 34, and Harold Crowley, 31, of New York city.

The fate of two other confessed participants in the crime—Frank Fischer, 53, and Thomas Burke, 39, guards at the Hoboken, N. J., hideout where O'Connell was held prisoner for 23 days, rested with Judge Bryant. He planned to sentence them today.

Stewell, "go-between" in the $40,000 ransom negotiations that led to the release of the young National Guard lieutenant and a politically prominent Albany family, was sentenced to 58 years and fined $10,000 for conspiracy to use the mails and use of the mails to extort.

Each of the other defendants was convicted of charges as well as conspiracy to transport a kidnapped person in interstate commerce and the actual transportation (the Lindbergh Law).

All of the other defendants except Crowley were sentenced to a total of 77 years and fined $10,000 on all counts. Crowley's penalty was a total of 28 years and a fine of $10,000.

Seated only a few feet away as they were sentenced, wives of two—Mrs. John Oley and Mrs. Percy Geary—sobbed openly. They had sat there, conversing quietly and occasionally wiping away a tear, throughout the jury's deliberations.

Both women are under federal indictment on charges of harboring fugitives.

For four of the convicted—Harold Dugan, McGlone, and Gargulio is under sentence of 25 to 30 years in Massachusetts State Prison at Charlestown for a 1936 Boston bank payroll robbery. The other three were plucked from Alcatraz federal prison cells to stand trial here. Each is serving 25 years for participation in a $129,000 mail truck robbery at Fall River, Mass., in 1935.

Missing from the courtroom for the first time in two days as the jury returned was the kidnap victim, now 28, married and the father of an infant son, born during the trial.

The nephew of Daniel P. and Edward J. O'Connell, Albany Democratic leaders, he was seized outside his Putnam street home in Albany early on the morning of July 7, 1933.

Buffalo Cheers Up

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—Low-hanging rain clouds drifted over western New York today but thoroughly soaked residents cheered a "weather bureau prediction" that "more favorable" conditions are in sight. Buffalo's senior meteorologist, James H. Spencer, said "there is a good possibility the weather may clear up" thus ending three days of torrential midsummer rains.

SENATOR BLACK NAMED TO SUPREME COURT

Senator Hugo Black (right) of Alabama was named by President Roosevelt to the Supreme Court but his immediate confirmation was blocked. He is shown here receiving congratulations from President Garner after the nomination went to the senate in a surprise move. Black was named to the place previously occupied by Willis Vandever.

John Urstruch, 15, 6 Tonsof Dynamite Sought by Police Set Off at 1:20 p.m. As Parole Breaker At Mingo Quarry

An alarm was sent out Thursday by State Trooper Raymond Dunn, of Phenicia, asking that John Urstruch, 15 years old, be apprehended for violation of parole. The lad had been "farmed out" at the Matyas farm near Pine Hill from the State Home for Boys at Jamesburgh, N. J., and had been brought to Ulster county by a parole officer a day or two previous.

When the lad left there also disappeared a .32 calibre revolver and a box of cartridges from the farm. Another employee at the same time together. The young lad's home is in Hoboken, N. J., and New Jersey authorities have been asked to keep a look-out for the lad. The boy is 5 feet, 2 inches in height, of dark complexion with dark hair and eyes. When he left he wore a white sleeveless shirt and brown shoes. He had been sent to the New Jersey Home for juvenile delinquency.

Lighting Division Meets

Wrightstown, N. J., Aug. 13 (AP)—An estimated 1,000 members of the 75th (Lighting) Division Association converged on Camp Dix today for their three-day 20th annual reunion. The veterans, many of whom came from distant points, will live in tents.

Rifle competition for the Colonel Frank Knox silver trophy, donated by the Republican vice-presidential candidate in the last election who commanded the second battalion of the 303rd ammunition train here and overseas, was on today's schedule. Governor Harold G. Hoffman will speak Sunday at a memorial service to the war dead of the 78th.

The Rev. John A. Farrelly, of Nyack, N. Y., chaplain of the 303rd regiment will deliver the eulogy.

Kingston was rocked slightly about 1:20 o'clock this afternoon when a blast of six tons of dynamite or 12,000 pounds of explosive, was set off by the Callanan Road Improvement Co. at Mingo Hollow, across the Rondout creek from Kingston. Inquiry at the office of the company brought out the information that 13 large holes, driven to a depth of 115 feet, and about 100 smaller holes driven to a depth of about 30 feet, had been tamped with dynamite and the explosive was then discharged at one blast.

It was stated that the tonnage loosened from the rocky ledge of the hill at the entrance to Mingo Hollow has not been estimated. It was said it was not known just when the concern would be ready to set off another blast.

The office of the company is situated about a thousand feet away from the scene of the blast. No one there was affected. The building rocked slightly.

The blast had been scheduled for discharge at noon today and many in Kingston were on the watch for the "quake," and when it was not felt during the noon hour they believed that the setting off of the blast had been delayed.

Sicilian Maneuvers

Palermo, Sicily, Aug. 13 (AP)—Fifty thousand fighting men maneuvered through broiling sunshine today in defensive war maneuvers. The problem: A "Blue" defensive force attempting to block a "Red" attack on the island. Of the more than 2,000 vehicles used by the soldiers, half were motorized, but 2,500 horses and mules tugged wagons and guns under the blazing Sicilian sun.

Democrats "Boom" Wilbur's Realty, For Law Says Candidates Must "Own"

Kingston is experiencing a pre-election boom in real estate in the Wilbur section of the city. Quite a number of deeds to the number of eight were filed yesterday in the office of the county clerk transferring the "Democratic lands" situated on DeWitt street in the city of Kingston to several of the prospective Democratic candidates. Two years ago these same lands were transferred by deed to candidates who were then running for office on the Democratic ticket.

The sudden boom in real estate and the filing of the "political deeds" is apparently due to the requirement which makes it necessary for a candidate for city office to be a real estate holder in order to qualify for office.

These lands which have been deeded to prospective candidates at the fall election have been "footballed" about for several years passed just prior to election and have passed through a series of transfers which probably would require a "Philadelphia lawyer" to straighten out the actual title. All of the eight transfers are to lots on DeWitt street, a short street which runs off Abel street and back under the Wilbur bridge. The lots in question are described as being lots Nos. 38, 39, 40, 42 and 43 on a map made by Edwin Smith.

This Year's Crop of Owners

The "beneficiaries" this year in real estate are: Walter Donnarumma of 80 Chambers street, candidate for alderman of the sixth ward.

Raymond J. Kohler, candidate for supervisor in the 11th ward.

Raymond J. Schuler, candidate for supervisor in the 4th ward.

Storm - Soaked Letter From Staten Island Arrives for Freeman

The Freeman received a letter this morning from the Staten Island Post Office enclosing another letter which had been caught in the flood which caused 19 deaths at midnight on Wednesday.

The letter was written by Mrs. Edward Wheeler of West Brighton, S. I., and contained her remittance for a subscription to The Freeman. Sand and other small particles were found inside the envelope and the ink on the letter had run considerably. The postage stamp had been washed off and a pencilled notation across the face of the envelope stated the damage had been caused by the flood.

Troopers Rescue 4 Men Marooned on Island at Allaben

Stranded on a small island in the Esopus creek when the heavy rain of Thursday evening raised the creek and washed away a small foot-bridge, four fishermen were rescued from the island at Allaben Thursday night by State Troopers Ray Dunn and Wright and Frank Tyler, who was called in by the Troopers because of his familiarity with the creek in that locality.

The four, Bibi Pasquall of Allaben, E. J. Valentine and son, David, of Lake Hill, and Edward Tullock of Closter, N. J., had gone to the island on the La Grange Farm at Allaben to do some fishing in the "Green Deep," a large and favorite fishing hole. When they went to the island they crossed the foot-bridge and began to fish. During the afternoon and early evening there were several heavy showers which passed over the mountain region raising the stream considerably. Later in the evening a heavy storm swept the locality and the Esopus creek rose to a considerable height and carried away the foot-bridge.

Help Summoned

When they found they were trapped on the small island they shouted for help and their summons for help were heard by the owner of the farm who called State Troopers Dunn and Wright, Frank Tyler, Phenicia guide, who is familiar with the creek in that locality was called on to assist in the rescue because of his knowledge of the stream.

At the scene a rope was tied about Tyler and he waded out into the creek which in places is eight or 10 feet deep. His knowledge of the channel permitted him to make his way around the downstream and he reached the island where the four were stranded.

The Valentine lad was brought back first on the shoulders of Tyler and under guidance of Tyler and the Troopers the other three made their way across the creek to the mainland. The fishing tackle of the quartet was also brought ashore and outside of a wetting the four were none the worse for their experience.

NEW DEAL BIG ISSUE

New York, Aug. 12 (AP)—The New Deal, a major source of discord in the Democratic majority primary, also became a substantial issue on the Republican side today.

The withdrawal of former representative Charles G. Bond as a candidate for mayor of New York city reduced the Republican race to a struggle between Mayor Roosevelt and Governor Roosevelt.

Two Killed in Fire

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Two were injured early today in a fire that wrecked a 5-story rooming house in West End avenue, near 99th street, in the upper West Side. The men were tentatively identified as "Kenny" and "Samuel" Goldberger, 29, both occupants of the top floor. Police said it was likely the fire started when a cigarette fell from the fingers of a smoker who dozed off. The interior of the house was wrecked.

28 Survivors Safe

Tunis, Tunisia, Aug. 13 (AP)—The 28 survivors of the crew of the Spanish government tanker Campesino reached the safety of this French possession today, after being rescued from a sinking by an Italian warship. Capt. Felix Gary, master of the tanker, reported to French officials his ship was sunk in the Mediterranean at 8 p. m. Wednesday by the Italian destroyer Saetta off Kolibia, 50 miles northeast of here.

Coroner Making Probe in Death of Simon Merrihew

Will Sell 12 Acres Of Fair Grounds to Board of Education

The sale of about 12 acres of the holdings of the Kingston Fair Grounds Association, embracing property known as the Fair Grounds, at the extension of North Front street, to the Board of Education of Kingston, was authorized at a stockholders meeting of the association held Thursday night at the office of Joseph Forman.

About 75 per cent of the stock outstanding was represented at the meeting, either by the stockholders or by proxy.

The vote authorizing the sale of the property to the city set $10,000 as the amount for which the transfer would be made in addition to that portion of the property offered to the city that about five acres on the rear part of the lot, on which is situated the quarters leased to the County of Ulster and the State of New York.

The land offered to the city is bounded roughly by Hurley avenue properties, Joy's Lane, Forsyth Park and a straight line drawn in front of the quarters toward Hurley avenue.

Purchased About 1920

The Fair Grounds holdings were purchased about 1920 by a number of Kingston business men, headed by the late Aaron Cohen and Matthew H. Herzig. They had purchased the land from the Mosher farm, the fourth estate and Owen Cassidy.

The new owners, enclosed a portion of the property for a ball park and erected a grandstand and for a number of years, when the old Colonial Baseball Club was in its prime some of the best league teams were seen in action there. Among teams which played with the Colonials were Pitts-burgh, Brooklyn, Boston, St. Louis, and others. It was the showing he made in the pitcher's box against Pittsburgh, in their game here, that led to "Red" Culliton receiving a contract with that team not long afterward, in the year in which they were World Series contenders.

Election of Officers

In addition to disposing of the question of the sale of the land to the city the Fair Grounds Association held election of officers at the meeting Thursday night. Stephen Cohen was elected president of the association; Gerard W. Betz, vice-president; Matthew H. Herzig, secretary-treasurer.

WAGE-HOUR RESOLUTION RECOMMENDED TODAY

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—The Rules Committee recommended a resolution today which would make it possible for the Democratic leadership to bring the administration's wage-hour bill before the House by suspending parliamentary rules—provided a two-thirds vote could be obtained.

Majority Leader Rayburn (D-Texas), who attended the Rules committee meeting with Speaker Bankhead, told newsmen afterward, however, he had assured the committee "no shenanigans" involving the wage-hour bill was contemplated under the resolution.

Members of the Labor committee said, however, they had virtually discarded hope of action on the converted legislation in session until mid-September.

ARRESTED BY WATER BOARD POLICE—GIVEN THIRTY DAYS

The newly organized New York Water Board Police are beginning to appear in the news. Members of the force yesterday arrested John J. Kennedy, 40, of 454 River avenue, Providence, R. I., on a charge of disorderly conduct. Kennedy was arraigned before Justice M. D. Schoonmaker at Ellenville, who sentenced him to spend 30 days in the Ulster county jail.

"Evidence" of Fraud

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—The law committee of the New York Republican county committee said today it discovered evidence of fraud in the Republican designating petitions of Senator Royal S. Copeland, Frank J. Prial and Samuel Levy, who are seeking the nomination for mayor, comptroller and president of the city council.

Krumville Man Dies Thursday Of Internal Injuries Possibly Caused by Team of Horses Stamping on Farm.

DOCTOR CALLED

Dr. Williams, Guest at Nearby Boarding House, Pronounces Merrihew Dead

Simon Merrihew, well known Krumville farmer, died from what are reported to have been internal injuries, received while he was working about his place about 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Coroner Humiston was reported to be still investigating the death this afternoon.

Merrihew and his son were at work cleaning out a chicken coop, the team of horses standing nearby, when the accident which caused the elder Merrihew's death took place, but details of which could not be ascertained today, attempts to reach Coroner Humiston being unsuccessful.

Apparently the horses started up and Mr. Merrihew in attempting to stop them was thrown to the ground. It is reported that he got to his feet, made his way a distance of 40 feet or so to a milk house and then collapsed. The son was inside the chicken coop when the affair started and consequently did not know just what happened, except that his father called to him.

Mr. Merrihew was in a dying condition when members of his family arrived on the scene. A Dr. Williams, guest at a nearby boarding house, was summoned, but pronounced Mr. Merrihew dead upon arrival.

Coroner Humiston was notified and Mr. Merrihew's remains were taken to the Humiston funeral home at Kerhonkson.

At the Merrihew home this noon it was stated that there were no indications that Mr. Merrihew had been trampled upon and it was believed that he had received internal injuries which caused his death.

Merrihew was widely known as a director of the milk board of Ulster county; a member of Accord Farmers Cooperative Association; chairman of the Olive third election district; chairman of the school district; and member of the Ulster County Farm Bureau. For years he had been an active member of the Reformed Church in Krumville. He is survived by his wife; a son, Henry S. Merrihew, both of Krumville; his mother, Mrs. Francis Merrihew, and a brother, Charles Merrihew, both of Krumville, and two other sons, Ezra, of Newark, N. J., and Oliver, of Kingston; two sisters, Anna, wife of Clarence Eckert, of Krumville, and Miss Lulu Merrihew, who resided with her mother on the old Merrihew homestead in Krumville, and two brothers-in-law by his first marriage, Henry and Grover C. Winfield, of Olive Bridge.

Funeral arrangements will be made later.

Rush Welsh Fusiliers

Hongkong, Aug. 12 (AP)—The British Far Eastern army command today ordered a battalion of Welsh Fusiliers rushed to Shanghai to reinforce the British garrison there guarding foreigners in the undeclared war between China and Japan. The battalion, 950 strong, will double the number of British troops in Shanghai. The decision to dispatch reinforcements followed a conference of the highest ranking British army officials in the Far East. They indicated the step was taken following a request from Shanghai for assistance.

Enforced Layoff for 3,000

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—Approximately 3,000 employees of the West Albany shops of the New York Central Railroad began an enforced layoff today—Friday the 13th. In the locomotive shop, the notice definitely fixed the date when the men will return to work as September 6, but employees in the car repair shop were not told when to report again. The company notice said the layoff was the first of its kind in three years and comes at a time when the rolling equipment is in excellent condition.

Levine Sought by U. S.

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Charles A. Levine, who may or may not be remembered as the first trans-Atlantic airplane passenger, was reported missing to Mexico today, but he will never get there if Federal authorities can prevent it. Levine was scheduled to appear in Federal court today for pleading on an indictment charging him with transportation of 2,000 pounds of powdered tungsten and for conspiracy to smuggle the goods to Canada. He did not appear when his name was called and Federal Judge Murray Hubbard was not pleased.

Fortune Smiles on 13th

Silver Creek, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—Fortune smiled on Erwin Chaplin on Friday the 13th. Searching for bodies of nine cows he thought he had lost in a flood, he found the cows huddled together in a 3,000 pound valley—alive. Returning home he told the good news to his wife, he found she had just presented him with a son.

Cardinal Hayes Improved Today

Fierce Dual Near Shanghai

Japan became suddenly more serious with the beginning of hostilities at Shanghai.

Admiral Yamamoto was understood to have ordered his fleet to take up stations in a position to guard every port in which American residents were likely to be endangered. The network of American warships will extend from Tientsin, in North China, far south to Canton.

The American patrol on the Yangtze deployed up and down the river at strategic positions near Shanghai to back up the units of the Asiatic fleet.

Capital's Protection

The Nanking government moved in an uncertain terms to protect the capital from attack by the Japanese fleet anchored in the lower Yangtze and Wangpoo rivers. It closed the Yangtze to navigation below Chinkiang, 130 miles up river from Shanghai. Nanking is 40 miles farther up the river.

The great stream was blockaded 100 miles above Woonung forts and mined. The huge modern guns of the forts in that area were stripped for action.

The Whangpoo river was also blockaded directly off the waterfront of the French concession to forestall a Japanese thrust against the government dockyards, arsenal and other military establishments, including the important Lungchow Airfield above the city.

Shortly after noon a Chinese warplane flew low over the city reannouncing the Japanese positions in the Chapei and Hongkew sectors and then disappeared to the west. The flight was the first aerial activity in the present Shanghai crisis and many believed it foreshadowed a Chinese attack with their reorganized air force.

Even as the plane was circling over the zone where the embattled Chinese and Japanese were keeping up a desultory fire-fight on the northern edge of the international settlement, a Chinese officer of the 88th division declared aerial conflict would make the impending hostilities "even more serious than those in 1932."

The Chinese officer, Lt. Gen. Hsing Chen-Nan, heightened apprehension for the safety of foreigners with the terse observation that if the Japanese used the international settlement as a base for operations the Chinese would feel free to do likewise.

Some $30,000,000 in coins and bullion was recovered by salvors from the S S Laurentic, sunk by a German submarine in the World war.

Search for Body of Teacher Goes On

FEARED DROWNED

Milford, Conn., Aug. 13 (AP)—Small craft trailing grappling irons resumed today a search for the body of Mrs. Charlotte Lucas, 35, Bridgeport school teacher missing since Wednesday night when her companion was forced to abandon her in storm-tossed Long Island Sound after their sailboat capsized.

Police were convinced that Mrs. Lucas drowned when, Officer Arthur Harris reported, her companion, George Wallace Thorpe, of New Haven, said she struggled free from an oyster stake to which he had tied her, intending to swim ashore for aid.

Thorpe, recovering from exposure at Milford Hospital, said he recovered her unconscious body by diving and attempted to bring her ashore. They were halfway to the beach, Harris said, "when he had to let go of the girl or both would have gone down."

Thorpe staggered ashore alone and exhausted at 4 a. m. Thursday.

Justification Asked
Berlin, Aug. 13 (AP)—The Foreign Press Association asked German officials today to justify satirizing charges of misconduct made against foreign newspaper correspondents accredited to the German capital since the expulsion of Norman Ebbutt of the London Times this week. The association, representing 107 correspondents from 33 countries, sent a letter to Joseph Goebbels, minister of propaganda, and to his newspaper, Der Angriff, asking proof of the charges. Ebbutt was given two weeks to get out of Germany following the expulsion from London of three German newspapermen. Unofficial sources said the Germans were suspected of espionage.

Many Glasses of Beer
Philadelphia, Aug. 13 (AP)—

Pennsylvania breweries supplied thirty Americans with 478,000 glasses of beer last month. Edward C. Dougherty, supervisor of the alcohol unit said yesterday federal tax receipts for July were $3,603,995, up nine per cent over June.

PATRICK CARDINAL HAYES

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Patrick Cardinal Hayes was reported much improved today at St. Vincent Hospital where he became a patient last night after suffering an attack of indigestion Tuesday at his summer home near Monticello, N. Y.

There is no cause for alarm, the hospital said, adding the 69-year-old prelate probably would remain a few more days for observation before returning upstate.

Dr. Sullivan and Dr. La Rotta issued the following statement at noon today:

"Cardinal Hayes is not seriously ill. He spent a very comfortable night, is in fine spirits and gives every evidence that in a very short period he will be able to return to the country.

"His indisposition has definitely passed."

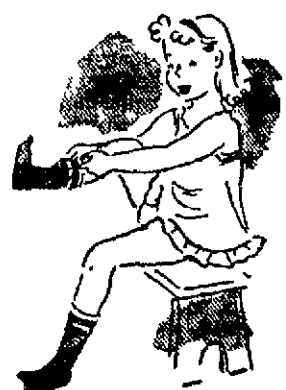

Six small boys of Rochester, N. Y., intent on "digging to China," struck buried treasure. It was a tiny metal box crammed full of old coins of small denominations, sailor buttons and a gift chain.

Schilling Fined $25 In Reckless Driving Thursday Evening

Francis J. Schilling, Jr., of 39 Emerson street, not only wrecked the borrowed car which he was operating along the Saengerites road last evening, but he later drew a $25 fine from Justice of the Peace Walter Webber when he pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving which was preferred by State Troopers Reilly, Sweeney and McGrannaghan, who were called to investigate the accident.

About 10:30 o'clock last evening Schilling was driving a Dodge sedan owned by Hyland Atwater of 22 West O'Reilly street along the road near the residence of State Trooper Arthur Reilly just beyond the city limits. Proceeding north in an opposite direction was Emil Kohnmunch of Hickoryhush, an employee at the New York Police Recreation Center at Tannersville, who was operating a Nash car. According to the State Troopers and others who observed the Dodge car, Schilling attempted to pass another car but sideswiped the Nash as Kohnmunch drove along his right side of the highway. After striking the Nash the car operated by Schilling ran over to the left of the road and hit a telephone pole and guy wire and then ran into the fence. The Nash car of Kohnmunch overturned but the driver, who was alone, escaped injury. Both cars were very badly damaged.

Schilling and a young woman who was with him also escaped injury. Troopers Reilly, Sweeney and McGrannaghan were called to the scene and placed Schilling under arrest on a reckless driving charge. Taken before Judge Webber he pleaded guilty to the charge and the $25 fine was imposed.

Motorists who were in the vicinity at the time told the Troopers that the car operated by Schilling had been traveling at a high rate of speed just prior to the accident.

Oddities in New Orleans

In New Orleans there are oddities galore. Uptown and downtown in that city are not north and south, county is parish, sidewalk is called "banquette" by many. The building where the notorious quadroom balls were held is a negro convent; an old race track is the city's most beautiful cemetery. Jazz music originated in that city which was the home of French opera in America. New Orleans has homes built without nails, street car tracks without cross-ties. The French market was built originally by the Spaniards. Hotel Dieu is a hospital.

Friday, the 13th, No Terror To Her

Friday, the 13th, holds no terror for Lucy Elizabeth Hodder of Boston. Scorning superstitions, she planned to marry on Friday, August 13, Frederick Louis Ratta, who is equally scornful of the age-old adage about the unlucky day.

Flash of Lightning Too

Quick for Eyes To See

The lightning flash is far too quick for the human eye to actually see—but it is so bright that it burns a distorted image on the retina which is taken for the real flash. Probably, most flashes endure less than a thousandth of a second—although multiple flashes, a series of flashes along the same general path taken by the rest, may continue for as long as a second. Really, lightning is never zigzagged as it is generally supposed to be. The bolt, as recorded by cameras, is usually a streak, sometimes straight but often curved, and frequently branching out like the roots of a tree.

The commonly described "sheet lightning" is not a sheet or even a broad band at all; it is just an ordinary flash which, hidden by the density of the cloud in which it occurs, lights up a section of the cloud in a "sheet," states a writer in the Boston Herald.

Since lightning takes the shortest path possible, it usually "strikes" the tallest object in the vicinity. Church steeples are ideal targets for lightning but, lacking them, a big barn, a tall house or even a tree will serve. The lightning crashes through them and the destruction it does depends upon the resistance the object offers to the passage of the energy. A metal object, such as a steel flag-pole, is not harmed in the least, as it allows the lightning free passage. But a wooden flag-pole, a building or even a tree does try to stop the lightning and, as a result, is blown to bits, literally exploded. Often heat is generated by the battle between wood and lightning and the wood is set afire.

Leaf tobacco exports by the United States totaled 417,539,000 pounds in 1936.

MODENA

Modena, Aug. 13—At the current meeting of the Modena Fire Department, conducted at the firehouse, Howard Ross was admitted as a new member, to the department. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kniffen and children of New Paltz were recent visitors in town. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O'Connell were among dealers and salesmen and their wives, employed by the

John Deere Manufacturing Co., who attended a banquet and dance at Wallkill, Monday evening. The Rev. and Mrs. Philip Solberg, Mr. and Mrs. Laceson Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hartney are among the committee appointed by the Plattekill Grangers, to be in charge of arrangements for the annual clambake to be served in the Grange Hall, Saturday, August 21. Mr. and Mrs. George Mathelsen were in Wallkill Tuesday afternoon. Salvatore Martino of Plattekill was a business caller here Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Williams entertained relatives from Wallkill at their home last week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O'Connell and son, Danny, spent Sunday with relatives in Liberty.

Increasing traffic fatalities among pedestrians at night are revealed by traffic accident surveys collected by the California State Auto association.

GARDEN HINTS

An application of plant food this month will help the perennials to give a good display of flowers next spring.

It is better to start new lawns in the fall than in the spring.

Iris makes new roots in the fall and should be transplanted this month. Oriental poppies should also be transplanted in August.

Annuals are benefited by cutting the blossoms.

Most bulbs do best if planted early. Plant as soon as they can be had from the dealers. Tulips are an exception and should be planted just before the ground freezes.

Forget-Me-Nots should be sown this month if they are to bloom early next year.

Most Evergreens can be transplanted safely in August.

A dwarf Magnolia has been discovered which flowers when only a few feet high.

Coal ashes have no fertilizing value.

When evergreenes are not doing well it may indicate that the red spider is the cause. These pests are very small and are not easily seen. They cannot withstand moisture and a simple remedy is to spray the tree with a strong stream of water which will dislodge and kill the spiders. Be sure to wet the under side of the foliage. Another remedy is dusting sulphur.

Any brown or yellow leaves at the base of chrysanthemums or delphiniums should be removed to keep the trouble from spreading to the rest of the plant.

The back yard to be used as an outdoor living room should have enough seats for the family to sit and enjoy it.

The autumn crocus should be planted now in order to enjoy them this fall. They take about six weeks to bloom.

It is frequently pointed out that application of chemical plant food to the soil is practiced more generally in Europe than it is in the United States. In the countries of central and western Europe, where the land has been tilled for centuries and where there is a high density of population, it has been necessary to use large quantities of chemical fertilizer in order to get as large crops as possible.

It is men who are the expert judges of color, fragrance and form, upon which qualities new flowers are rated, to determine whether they are worthwhile. And men are likely to be interested in the blossoms themselves, more than in the arrangement of them.

Bee-Balm is a hardy plant that needs scarcely any attention and so will make a satisfactory planting for the busy gardener.

If roses are given a general pruning now, it will stimulate them to better growth and more blossoms in the fall.

Turnips, lettuce, spinach and early varieties of peas can still be planted and give a crop before frost.

If transplanting is to be done at this time of year choose a cloudy day and protect the plants from the sun for a few days.

A much of granulated peat moss will help to keep roses in good condition during August.

TWO WAYS TO BEAT THE JAPANESE BEETLE

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—New York has a man who says he has found two ways to beat the Japanese beetle, that garden-devastating pest whose ravages this year have been declared the greatest in history.

The man is Dr. Abraham A. Bernard, Brooklyn physician and amateur horticulturist and naturalist.

One way, he said today, is to turn fowl loose in the garden. His pheasants and ducks are gourmands when the beetles are served.

His second method is to turn out an army of tarantulas, those band-legged, hairy-legged, virulently poisonous spiders.

If the farmers out west resorted to either of these methods, Dr. Bernard believes they would conquer the beetle problem. The physician has a tarantula which lives exclusively on beetles.

After 30 years as instructor of shopwork at Clarkson College, Archie E. Sutherland has resigned from the faculty at the age of 77.

Past Grand Knights' Degree

Monday evening, August 16, a large class of candidates will be initiated into Kingston Council, Knights of Columbus. This is the first class to be taken in from the large number of new members now signed up for the local council. A very large attendance is expected, and a social session will be held following the regular meeting, when refreshments will be served.

A novel feature of the meeting will be that the degree work will be conducted by Past Grand Knights of the local council. All the parts will be taken by men who in the past have acted as presiding officer of the society. Some of the officers will be those who served from 20 to 25 years ago. All the past grand knights will be guests of honor on the occasion. Invitations have been extended to all "old timers" to be present and extend a greeting to the newly initiated knights. A musical program has been arranged and a pleasant and sociable evening is expected.

FLASHES OF LIFE SKETCHED IN BRIEF

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Police Geography.

Richmond, Va.—Frank Moran, secretary to State Police Superintendent H. B. Nicholas, told this one today:

A rookie state patrolman, feeling the influence of his badge and gun stopped a tourist car which was several inches out of the right highway lane.

"Where are you from?" he demanded. "Cincinnati," replied the tourist.

The new officer smiled triumphantly. "Well, buddy, suppose you explain why you've got Ohio tags on your car."

Shocking!

Philadelphia—The zoo here has put five electric eels to work. Two electrodes a bit of wire and a bulb have been rigged up. The eels, touching one electrode light the bulb.

Each eel generates up to 500 volts of electricity, attendants in the reptile house estimate.

Pinch-Whistlers.

Bekeley, Calif.—"Oh gimme a truck, a big red truck. And gimme a fire-ax, too—'And I'll go wahoo-wahoo—'W-a-a-hoo!" That's just what Berkeley firemen did. Their siren quit.

Crab Meat.

Columbia, S. C.—Former Governor John G. Richards said he saw a tobacco-chewing crab at the beach.

Richards said someone threw the crab, a pet, a burning cigar stub. The crab beat out the fire, ate part of the cigar and dragged the remainder to its hole.

The horse may be considered a useless adjunct to modern civilization, Washington county Farm Bureau Manager Clarence M. Slack concedes, but this has not prevented the animals from reaching a new high in market values. "A good team of horses today is worth $500," Slack said, adding "despite the greater use of motorized farm equipment, horses are still necessary, even on a modern farm."

New Children's Apparel Shop to Open on Saturday

Announcement is made that "Kramor's," the new children's apparel shop at 333 Wall street, will be open to the public Saturday morning. It will be the second unit in a program of expansion planned by the concern which for some 16 years past has conducted a similar store, known as "Harry's," in Poughkeepsie.

Harry Pedolsky, president and general merchandise manager of the company, who has been busily engaged in preparation for the opening Saturday, said this morning that the new store, which has as its slogan, "From high chair to high school," will carry a complete line of apparel for all purposes and all occasions, for boys up to ten years of age and for girls up to 16 years. He added that only quality merchandise would be carried and that at reasonable prices.

Kramor's will feature its shoe department with shoes for infants and children up to 10 years of age, carrying two nationally known lines and paying special attention to scientific fitting.

The Kingston store will be in charge of Moe Polekoff, resident manager, assisted by Miss Joie Muldoon, Mrs. Sherman and Miss Jacobson, all of Kingston.

Kramor's occupies the newly built and furnished store in the Godeff building and everything about it is new and up to date. The attractive display cases and other fittings were manufactured and installed by Fisher Bros., a Kingston concern, and the work connected with getting the store in readiness was done by local workmen.

MT. TRUMPER

Mr. Trumper, Aug. 13.—Quite a large crowd of city visitors spent the week-end at the various boarding houses in the vicinity. The Brookside, Miss's Hillside House, The Welcome Home, The Randall House and The Maples all were well filled.

Quite a number from here attended the lawn party held on the Charles T. McKelvie estate at Willow on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Davenport and son and daughter, Mary Ellen, of Washington, D. C., have been spending part of their vacation here visiting relatives. They stopped at The Maples while here.

Sheriff Reduces Ellenville Staff

Sheriff Molyneux, who has had a force of some 15 deputies patrolling the boarding house district in the vicinity of Ellenville for some time, has reduced the force to a few men, and said today that if no disorder developed today he would undoubtedly withdraw all of his men from the field.

On August 3 a Brooklyn woman who had been stopping in Woodridge visited the Nevele Hotel at Laurenskill, near Ellenville, and started to distribute union literature. She was arrested by the proprietor and taken to Ellenville where she was later interviewed by the sheriff and on her agreement to return to Woodridge the charge was withdrawn.

Since then the sheriff has had a force of deputies in the town of Wawarsing to prevent an outbreak of disorder that has marked Sullivan county this summer.

LOWEST BUICK PRICES EVER! At today's prices, a big Buick valve-in-head straight-eight costs little more than the average six outside the lowest price field! Compare delivered prices and learn how little more Buick's built-in value.

General Motors Terms to Suit Your Liking

"It's Buick again!"

YOUR MONEY GOES FARTHER IN A GENERAL MOTORS CAR

IT'S no time now to dawdle around—here's August, summer's flying, that car of yours is going down steadily in trade-in value—and the Buicks are moving plenty fast!

Right now this big, silky, fast-stepping, valve-in-head straight-eight is still selling at the lowest prices in Buick history.

It's still your big chance to get a man-size bundle of thrill-packed travel-power at rock-bottom bargain rates. You can still have one for less than some sixes cost—and it's so far out in front of the others that no matter what they do next, they won't be able to match the '37 Buick for value!

So go slip your frame behind a Buick's ready wheel and head its nose out toward the long, wide highway. Try out its great power with your gas-treadle toe, give yourself over to it and let it show how it can send your spirits soaring.

And when you've sampled its mettle and learned the modest price figures, just ask yourself if it's likely that we'll soon see such value again! Yes, sir, it's a buy—the buy—just too good a buy to let slip.

So get busy—right now! Fast action, is in order! Give us a ring and we'll talk things over!

SAVED FROM WRECKED BUILDING

This dramatic picture shows Mrs. Marie Coral clinging to a beam as she was rescued from the wreckage of three tenement buildings which collapsed on Staten Island, N. Y., bringing death to at least 19 persons and injuries to several more. Mrs. Coral suffered internal injuries. The buildings, undermined by water, fell in during a violent rainstorm.

Legion Members Await Reports Solace for Mother: Even Quints Fight

Troy, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—Delegates to the 19th annual New York state American Legion convention awaited today the report of their resolutions committee.

Returning to business sessions after bearing a plea for a stronger national defense, the delegates expected to have a chance to vote on the proposals of the powerful resolutions group before tonight.

Yesterday, the organization completed all band and bugle and drum corps competitions except those for junior units.

The Rockland County Post Band won the band contest with Oyster Bay second and the Mrs. Irene Powers drill team of Rochester won the ladies drill team competition. The junior competition was to be held today.

Lutheran Broadcast

The Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church, this city, has received notice today that the Lutheran Day Celebration taking place Saturday at Ocean Grove, N. J., will be broadcast from 8 to 8:30 p. m. over station WOR, Newark, N. J.

Callander, Ont., Aug. 13 (AP)—The Dionne quintuplets, little ladies they are, have learned to pull hair.

And, Dr. A. R. Dafeo disclosed today, they've been separated from each other all week as much as possible to eliminate suddenly developed outbursts of quarreling.

The battles started last Monday when the little girls developed colds, usually they get along famously, trading their toys with each other and smiling.

But buckets of tears have been shed since those colds started. First of all, Marie quarreled with Cecile. Then Annette, Yvonne, and Emilie made it a general war, that they could get back into circulation again, giving the thousands of tourists who visit here a chance to see the famous girls—as soon as they are completely happy once more.

We don't believe times are as good as they say. There doesn't seem to be enough insurance agents bothering us.

SCORE KILLED AS FLOOD WRECKS BUILDINGS

At least 19 persons are dead, several more were missing and injured as the result of the collapse of three tenement buildings on Staten Island, N. Y., during a severe rainstorm. The buildings, with cellars flooded and foundations undermined, fell in while most of their occupants were sleeping. This is a general view of the wreckage as rescue workers hunted for the dead and injured.

Salvation Army To Hold Tag Day

Mayor C. J. Heiselman today issued the following proclamation designating Saturday as Tag Day for the Salvation Army in Kingston:

Proclamation.
As Mayor of the City of Kingston, I proclaim Saturday, August 14, Tag Day for the Salvation Army.

This worthy organization ministers to the spiritual and physical needs of all, regardless of creed, and their program merits a generous response by our citizens through the purchase of tags.
C. J. HEISELMAN, Mayor.

Soviet Airmen Over North Pole

Seattle, Aug. 13 (AP)—Six more Soviet airmen soared over the forbidding North Pole ice cap today in a flight they hope will blaze the trail for a future passenger route. Two previous flights ended successfully in Western United States after non-stop jumps of more than 6,000 miles. A four-motored, 35-ton craft bore the six fliers over the roof of the world toward Fairbanks, Alaska, where they expected to land and refuel about noon (5 p. m., E. S. T.) after a flight of approximately 4,000 miles from Moscow, where they took off at 10:13 a. m., E. S. T., yesterday.

If you take your particular brand of foolishness seriously, it's scientific research.

Monkeys Are Guinea Pigs In War Against Paralysis

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE

The Optimist
I sing a song to the Optimist,
To the man that is brave and strong;
Who keeps his head when things go right,
And smiles when things go wrong.
I am proud of the genial Optimist,
His radiant voice and speech;
He helps smooth the rugged path
Of all within his reach.
I like the way of the Optimist
Who looks for the bright and best;
He scatters sunshine as he goes
And leaves his fellows blest.
I am glad to meet the Optimist,
With his message of good cheer,
He carries hope and confidence
To those assailed by fear.

So here's a song to the Optimist
Who joyously works and sings,
And daily shows this weary world
The way to better things.
—Grenville Kleiser

Some unhappy marriages might be prevented if the method suggested by the following from the Pathfinder were adopted:
Young Man—Sir, your charming daughter has invited me to dinner.
Her Father—I'll do better than that. I'll invite you to breakfast. Then you can see how she looks in the morning without her make-up.

To tell a funny story, tell the point and omit the story.
Mrs. Smith rushed into her living room:
Mrs. Smith—Oh, John, I dropped my diamond ring off my finger and I can't find it anywhere.
John (calmly)—It's all right, dear. I can across it in my trousers' pocket.

Clipped: "Where there is a will there is a way and where there is no will that are a lot of fighting relatives."
Visitor—I can't tell you how delighted I am, Mrs. Giles. My son Reggie has won a scholarship.
Farmer's Wife—I can understand your feelings, ma'am. I felt just the same when our pig won a blue ribbon at the County Fair.

Good definition of Salesmanship: "The art of selling products that will not come back to customers who will."

Pat wanted to borrow some money from Michael, who happened to have a small boy with him at the moment:
Pat—"Is a fine boy you have there with you, Mike. A magnificent head and noble features. Could you loan me ten?"
Mike—I could not. 'Tis my wife's child by her first husband.

READ IT OR NOT—
Angels do not have wings.

Hairy Customer— Hair cut, singe, shampoo, mustache clipped and beard trimmed, and—where can I put this cigar?
Barber—Would you mind keeping it in your mouth, sir? It'll be sort of a landmark.

Infantile Paralysis
Cases up 200%
Washington (AP)—Infantile paralysis cases throughout the country are up more than 200 per cent from last year, the U. S. public health service reports.
Total number of cases in 10 representative states during the week ended July 31 was 261, compared with only 44 cases in the same states during the corresponding week of 1936.
Public health service surgeons said, however, that the figures did not indicate an epidemic of the disease.
"There is usually an increase in the incidence of infantile paralysis during August and September," they said, "and apparently the seasonal rise has started somewhat earlier than usual."

Anesthetic Used
The new spray is zinc sulphate. It is familiar as an eye wash. But for infantile paralysis prevention

INFANTILE PARALYSIS CASES UP 200%

Washington (AP)—Infantile paralysis cases throughout the country are up more than 200 per cent from last year, the U. S. public health service reports.

Total number of cases in 10 representative states during the week ended July 31 was 261, compared with only 44 cases in the same states during the corresponding week of 1936.

"There is usually an increase in the incidence of infantile paralysis during August and September," they said, "and apparently the seasonal rise has started somewhat earlier than usual."

It is given in a concentration pain-ful unless a local anesthetic is used. The Californians, E. W. Schultz, M. D., and L. P. Gehard, report they have now found an anesthetic, pantoic acid, which does not harm the spray.

MONKEYS SUBMIT TO THIS. Experiments on monkeys demonstrate that infantile paralysis attacks only through the nose.

SO LITTLE BOYS WON'T GO THROUGH THIS. Little boy from infantile paralysis is through use of nose sprays.

protection for a month after spraying. But the zinc sulphate on the monkey's nose has remained effective two and sometimes three months.

"The remarkable protection," they report, "in animals suggests the desirability of carrying the investigation over to man. We say 'investigation' advisedly, for it does not necessarily follow that the results which have been obtained in monkeys apply equally to man."

Attacks Through Noses

Nose sprays offer at present the only scientific hope of preventing this child scourge. In monkeys it has been demonstrated completely that the paralysis attacks only through the nose. It enters through the nerves of smell, whose endings, tiny "hairs" are the only exposed nerves of the body.

Physicians regard it as almost certain that human beings also catch the paralysis only through these same nerves.
The disease is known to travel in the nerves, and to affect only nerves. This is the reason why immune serum is not always an effective preventive. The serum has to be given in the blood. It causes formation of protective substances, antibodies, but they do not get into the nerves, or at least not quickly enough.

IT'S ODD But It's Science

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Editor

Boston—Four nines is the biggest hand in the game of metal-lurgy—the making of miraculous new things.

The "four nines" are 99.99 per cent purity. Right up to that last hundredth of one per cent a metal does not change. But purified to "four nines" anything can happen. Zinc is the latest. At 99.99 pure it is a new kind of metal.

What was known as zinc 15 years ago is now recognized as just an alloy, says the Arthur D. Little Industrial Bulletin.

The 99.99 zinc makes a shining paint, like aluminum, but requiring less coats. It makes a new foil, when alloyed, that is when mixed with impurities different from those it naturally had.

BOYS, I THINK WE HAVE SOMETHING HERE!

Protests Made of Day Handling All HOLC City Sales

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP).—Representative Robert L. Bacon, of Old Westbury, N. Y., said today he had forwarded to the Home Owners Loan Corporation and the comptroller of the currency complaints that the sale of liquidated National Bank and HOLC properties in Queens county were being handled by a single New York city real estate concern (Joseph P. Day, Inc.).

Bacon said he received letters from the Jamaica real estate board and the Jamaica Chamber of Commerce protesting the arrangement.

Both organizations, Bacon said, argued local real estate men were "far better equipped" to handle the real estate affairs of the HOLC and the Treasury than the company which they said has been designated as sole agent.

Bacon said the Jamaica business organizations complained the New York city agent was receiving a larger commission than local agents would charge.

Meanwhile Republican leaders in the House indicated they intended to take no action on the demand of Representative Hamilton Fish, of Garrison, to purge the party of "reactionaries."

Fish resigned from the House Republican policy committee because Chairman James E. Wadsworth, of Genesee, accepted appointment to the New York World Fair Commission. Speaker Bankhead previously had refused to appoint Fish.

Fish criticized Wadsworth's policies and called upon the party to adopt a more liberal program. Minority Leader Bertrand H. Snell said Fish's letter "doesn't mean a thing to me. . . . What Fish said in his letter he said before."

Another prominent House Republican characterized Fish's letter as "sour grapes."

"Indefinite Vacation"

Berlin, Aug. 13 (AP).—Prof. Bernhard Hanfstaengl, director of the Berlin National Gallery who, it was rumored, was a bit lukewarm toward the new Nazi purge of art, was sent on an "indefinite vacation" today. Several hundred paintings and pictures already had been weeded out of the gallery as a result of Col. Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering's order that German art must be true to the German race. The professor is a cousin of Ernst Hanfstaengl, the Harvard graduate who until recently was foreign press chief of the Nazi party—but is now, by reference, in London.

"A STONE WALL HAS DISAPPEARED"

Top: The orchard of H. E. Van Winkle, adjoining the field of J. R. Hasbrouck. The marker shows the supposed former location of the missing stone wall. Bottom: Ann and Jane Van Winkle seated on what may be the remains of the disputed line fence.

A stone wall that is supposed to have been built during the time Washington Irving's legendary character Rip Van Winkle was roaming about this territory, has disappeared from the vicinity of Stone Ridge and a suit has been instituted for its return or a settlement made for damages.

The defendant, H. E. Van Winkle, who says he is a descendant of the famous Rip, does not remember such a wall as claimed by the plaintiff. He says Rip evidently carried away the knowledge of such a wall with him when he went into the Catskills for his 20-year nap, and when he returned to his native haunts, he must have forgotten about the wall. Mr. Van Winkle further stated that it is quite probable that Hendrick Hudson's dwarfs may have carried away the stones on nightly pilgrimages from their mountain haunts, using the missing stones in their game of blue-pins.

Whatever it may be, the fact remains that J. Roswell Hasbrouck has filed suit against H. E. Van Winkle, claiming that a stone wall four feet high, four feet wide, and 531 feet long, between the Hasbrouck field and the Van Winkle orchard, has disappeared totally, and another section of similar wall 361 feet long has been removed partially.

No Settlement

The progress of the suit bogged down at High Falls on August 4 at which time Justice Oscar Church set August 19 as the date for a trial by jury. The following jurors were drawn: Jason Beatty, Harry DeWitt, Charles Davis, Festus Yeaple, John H. Palen, Stanley Steen, William Krom, Clifford Basten, Philip Countryman, Ward Christiana, Howard Basten, Ernest Jansen.

The defendant, H. E. Van Winkle, when questioned concerning the dispute and the events leading up to the suit, stated that he "guessed he was like his ancestor Rip, because I must have been asleep for 20 years. I don't quite know what it's all about."

The first notice that Van Winkle had that things were not all peace and quiet in the hamlet of Stone Ridge came on the morning of July 23 when he received a letter from J. Roswell Hasbrouck, plaintiff in the case, in the form of a bill for $100 for the removal of a stone wall claimed to have disappeared at least 14 years ago.

Offers Reward

The defendant states he has no recollection of such a stone wall but nevertheless he stated that he took steps to find out about the business, even to offering a reward for the return of the stones or the apprehension of the malefactors.

The present Mr. Van Winkle searched through old family records and claims he did find mention of the construction of a stone wall somewhere on the farm property, but no location of this work is given in the records. Mr. Van Winkle believes that this wall was in the process of being built about the time Irving's old Rip went away into the mountains for his sleep, and the defendant has little doubt but that those dwarfs, whose nine-pin games can be heard in progress during a nocturnal storm in the Catskills, know the location of the missing stones and probably are responsible for the Van Winkle's dilemma.

Weasel Is Ruthless in Killing Birds, Rabbits

The weasel is well equipped for his career of carnage with serpentine neck, lean body and loose skin. In subduing fellow creatures his swiftness gives him a distinct advantage in that he can attack from almost any position. He possesses the knack of elongating his body to an incredible degree and is able to squeeze through small openings in pursuit of quarry. His elastic skin likewise proves a great asset when attacked because it leaves his body free to strike back. A large healthy rat, with its chisel-edged teeth, is the only animal anywhere near his size that can whip him. The weasel's mode of attack is to fling his body over his victim and embrace him with his front feet. In this fierce clutch the prey has no chance and life is extinct in a few seconds.

The incessant forcing of this diminutive fiend causes great losses in bird life, asserts an official of the Detroit chapter of the Izaak Walton league. He has been known to jump two feet into the air to pull down a quail or partridge, and his dexterity as a climber is truly amazing. We have seen him climb a smooth pole holding a martin house and quickly dart in and out of each compartment to destroy the eggs of young. It seems almost paradoxical that Nature should have endowed the weasel with so many weapons of destruction for use against her charges, and it is small wonder that he is called the tiger among smaller mammals. A mother weasel with young is particularly murderous, and will carry innumerable birds and lesser animals to her lair for her offspring to feed upon.

"Marshall" of French Origin

"Marshall," of old French origin, is one of the occupation names. A marshal was originally a groom, or manager of the horse. The king's marshal rose gradually in importance and dignity as the importance of cavalry increased, until he became one of the judges in courts of chivalry, and now the highest French military officer is called a marshal (or marechal, in the French spelling), a title which the English and Germans adapted to "field marshal." When used as a name the word has two l's.

ARMS RACE BOOSTS SCRAP IRON PRICES

Junk Eagerly Grabbed Up by Foreign Nations.

New Orleans, La.—Between 5,000 and 10,000 tons of scrap iron are being shipped from this port every week, according to estimates, bound to Italy, Japan, Poland, Belgium, England, Germany and Mexico.

Huge piles of scrap iron, copper, brass, aluminum and tin cans are here one day and gone the next. Relatively high prices are being paid by foreign nations and the junk business has brought boom times to thousands in the scrap iron business.

Today great combines and syndicates are organized to handle the nation's castoff metals. They work through the parent company down to the ragamuffins of the alleys who wander through the back streets picking up iron, cans, brass and copper to sell for a few nickels to the local agent, who in turn, sells it to a trucker. The trucker hauls it to the company dump and again sells it for a good profit.

Goes for Armament.

The "junkers" know, and admit, that a great part of the metal they sell is going to be used in the manufacture of munitions—which some time might be used against this country. But, they say, they must make a living.

Iron is bringing around 9 1/2 cents a pound in New Orleans. Brass and copper bring as much as 14 cents. Aluminum sells for about the same.

Freight agents are anxious to get cargoes of scrap for their vessels. The rate is high—as much as $11 a ton, and a ton of iron takes far less space than a ton of cotton which pays about the same rate.

So great has been the demand for tin in Italy that one enterprising dealer sold a load of dismantled taxicab doors to the Italian government. The doors were loaded into an Italian freighter without having the wood, upholstery or broken glass removed.

Iron Is Conditioned.

Solid "chunk" iron brings the best price. Before being loaded aboard a freighter, the metal is "conditioned." Conditioning consists of cutting the metal into pieces not more than 5 feet long, 18 inches wide and 18 inches thick. Steel rails, ship plates, railroad wheels and parts, form the most lucrative items of the trade, but iron bolts, discarded flails, pipes, radiators all go into making up a full cargo for a freighter.

Rising foreign prices have made it possible for the "junkier" to salvage many iron objects formerly not considered worth the effort. Tin cans are being hauled from municipal trash heaps and smashed by a giant compressor into compact suitcase-size parcels for cargo. The tin brings a high price in foreign countries.

A compressor for such work costs about $35,000 and must have a large market to enable the operator to show a profit for its operation.

Foreign markets are paying as high as $17.50 a ton for New Orleans iron and steel. Prices for copper and brass are based on the need of the nation buying the material. Fabulous tales have been told of prices obtained for a cargo of brass for use in the manufacture of cartridge cases.

Parish Planning to Grab Easter Lily Bulb Market

New Orleans, La.—Plaquemines parish boosters are planning to take the Easter lily bulb market from Japan and Bermuda.

Lilies grown in the parish are held to be superior to those grown elsewhere, and with further development growers hope to take the annual 2,500,000 bulb market from Japan, where a majority of the lilies blooming in this country on Easter are raised.

"Most of the lily bulbs used in this country come from Japan," Dr. C. T. Dowell, director of the agricultural experiment station at Louisiana State university, told growers. "We import 2,500,000 bulbs annually, most of which are inferior to those raised in Plaquemines parish. If the industry is developed further here we could take the market from Japan."

Plaquemines parish can grow enough lilies to supply the entire American market, according to Peter A. Chopin, president of the New Orleans Retail Florists' association.

King George's Physician Gives Five Health Rules

London.—The five basic principles of life that lead to health and happiness have been laid down by Lord Horder, the king's doctor.

They are: Enough of the right food; suitable shelter at the right price; access to the fresh air; reasonable amount of leisure and also of quiet; a job of work.

"Proper housing of the people is one of the most important things in preventive medicine," Lord Horder told a meeting of housing experts.

Rich in Rock Salt

Harrisburg, Pa.—A store of rock salt that would supply the world for many years is buried under Pennsylvania soil, according to Thomas A. Logue, secretary of internal affairs of Pennsylvania.

That typically American dish—corn-on-the-cob—is right in season with a supply ample enough to assure every lover of sweet corn a generous amount this summer. Consumers' Information Service of the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets reports a demand for the new sweet corn fully equal to the increased supply.

Texas Official Flies to Work All Over State

Austin, Tex. (AP).—Attorney General William McCraw of Texas pilots himself to work—and his work is likely to take him anywhere in the state from the Rio Grande to the Panhandle. A licensed pilot, McCraw owns a plane in partnership with a friend and seldom uses an automobile or train to get from the state capital to any other Texas city. He hops from Austin to Amarillo, nearly 500 miles by air in a little more than five hours' the round trip.

"It would take practically to go and a day to return other way," he says. The attorney general uses commercial airlines for frequent trips to Washington. He recently left Dallas at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, testified before a congressional committee, and was home again the following night.

The United States has appropriated $1,500,000 for a federal government exhibit at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Bugler Bounced

Troy, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—The American Legion's official bugler has overslept. Eddie Miller, of New York city, national bugler for the organization, was dumped unceremoniously from a cot on which he slept, his bugle by his side, at the headquarters of the New York State American Legion convention. During the war, Miller said, the post sentry had to awaken the bugler but "the convention hasn't one, so I just slept."

WASHINGTON AVENUE MUD PUDDLE

A Studebaker sedan driven by Miss Roberta Coots of Port Jervis is pictured resting comfortably in a mud puddle on the remains of Washington avenue, following the thunder shower of Wednesday evening which turned the street into a sea of mud. Miss Coots resides on Route 6, the Port Jervis-Middletown road, and has been attending business school in Kingston. The accident happened at the corner of Washington avenue and Lucas avenue and not only shows what happened to the unfortunate autoist, but also gives one an idea of the condition of Washington avenue which has been under construction for some time as a WPA project. Because of the excessive amount of rain that has fallen in the past week, it is now almost a continuous mud puddle and practically impassable.

Pierce to Reorganize

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—President Arthur J. Chanter of the Pierce Arrow Motor Car Company left for Detroit today, reiterating his statement that a man "of national prominence will be invited to become the executive head" of the corporation. Reports mentioned Postmaster James A. Farley as a possibility when Chanter first announced the Pierce Company would reorganize and enter the medium-priced auto field last week. Chanter neither confirmed nor denied these reports. Meanwhile, company directors revealed they had formulated a financing plan which they said would raise $10,700,000.

The trouble with a lot of this summer weather, an observer reports, is that it's not properly air-conditioned.

new Discoverie

Everybody likes a change . . . and that's why we often side-step the conventional and dare to bring you the new and the different . . .

We've made some new discoveries in handsome Palm Beach effects this Season and we're showing them for the first time:

Feather flecks . . . a tweedy Palm Beach weave . . . in rich mixtures that suggest the plumage of feathered game.

Pin Point weave . . . in deep grays and browns . . . with the air of imported fabrics.

Hi-land twists in heathery mixtures . . . sturdy, porous, shape-retaining . . .

Just three of the many for office days and sports . . . they're all genuine Palm Beach . . . and that means your money's most at $16.75.

NEW PALTZ NEWS

New Palitz, Aug. 13.—In chapel at the Normal School last Wednesday in connection with the circus given by the second and third grade children of the Van den Berg School of Practice, there were two tap dances by Patricia Hart and several piano solos by John Rogers, both Normal School students.

Mrs. Alba Hoffman of Troy spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Roy Smith, in Gardiner.

St. Joseph's Church grounds are now very pretty with the abundance of various colored flowers for which Mr. Meyers is responsible, with portulacas, dahlias, petunias and nasturtiums, also hollyhocks, roses and gladioli with the evergreen trees makes a very pleasing effect.

Mr. Brass, a student minister, is in charge at the Gardner church.

Services are being held every Sunday in the old schoolhouse at Kelleboro, not far from New Palitz.

There was a good attendance at the first supper in the old French house on Huguenot street on Wednesday night sponsored by the ladies of the Reformed Church.

Lower Hudson Regional Market

Market continued firm for good quality celery, spinach and green beans, weaker for tomatoes and apples, other produce about steady at the Lower Hudson Regional Market this morning. Supplies liberal for tomatoes, corn and apples, light to moderate for other produce. Demand was fairly active at the opening but slow to moderate toward the closing period. About 325 growers and buyers were in attendance.

Predict Return of Silk Workers

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Early return to work of 15,000 of an estimated 38,000 eastern silk workers still out on strike was predicted today by both silk manufacturers and labor leaders.

Successful termination of the strike

Successful termination of the strike was forecast by Sidney Hillman, chairman of the textile workers organizing committee, which called the walkout in an attempt to stabilize wages and work standards in the silk industry. Hillman continued conferences with about 60 manufacturers who formed an association to negotiate with him after a meeting here yesterday.

Close Consular Offices

Gibraltar, Aug. 13 (AP)—British authorities today ordered the consular offices of the Spanish Insurgent regime here closed. The order was understood to have been issued on the grounds that the consulate for several months has been issuing unauthorized passports.

The Spanish government at Valencia

The Spanish government at Valencia was understood to have made representations to the British authorities through its consul general here. The British government recognizes the Valencia authorities as the legitimate government of Spain.

Roosevelt Cruise

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—President Roosevelt will board the yacht Potomac at Annapolis, Md., tonight or tomorrow for a week-end cruise. He told a press conference today he would keep in close touch with the Far Eastern and congressional situations and be back Sunday afternoon.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By CLAUDE A. JACGER

New York, Aug. 13 (AP)—Stocks came to the fore in today's stock market after aviation and specialty issues had pointed the way in early dealings.

While backward stocks were to be seen here and there, gains of fractions to around 2 points were fairly well distributed near the final hour. Volume picked up on the extension of the recovery move, with transfers running at the rate of about 900,000 shares.

Bonds and commodities were uneven. A number of secondary rail loans regained popularity.

Although there was a little profit selling here and there in the afternoon, stocks generally pointed upward including Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, L. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, U. S. Rubber, Chrysler, General Motors, Woolworth, Montgomery Ward, Deere, Oliver Farm, Western Union, Electric Power & Light, General Electric, du Pont, Allied Chemical, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Colorado & Southern, Spigel Inc., Radio, Crown Cork, Canada Dry and Servel.

Narrow were Anaconda, Kennecott, American Smelting, International Nickel, N. Y. Central, Pennsylvania, Chesapeake & Ohio, and American Telephone and Consolidated Edison.

Stocks Regained Some Recent Lost Ground Thursday

Stocks regained some of their recent lost ground yesterday as shown by the Dow-Jones average, 790,000 shares changing hands. Industrials were up 0.90 point, to 187.62; rails gained 0.57, to 53.57; utilities advanced 0.07, to 29.03. Government bonds declined, corporates were steady. Wheat was erratic, closing lower. Total stock of wheat in Canada, as of July 31, was 32,739,852 bushels, lowest since 1925 and comparing with 108,094,247 a year ago.

Indications of revival of interest in capital markets were seen yesterday. Consolidated Edison filed application for permission to sell $80,000,000 of debentures. A railroad subsidiary of U. S. Steel is expected to file registrations totaling $30,000,000 and Pierce-Arrow plans to sell $10,700,000 stock to finance production of a medium-priced car.

A holding company organization affiliated with the Hillman interests of Pittsburgh has purchased 90,000 shares, or 45 percent, of the outstanding common stock of the Alan Wood Steel Co. The remaining 55 percent of the common is owned by Koppers Co. The U. S. Government is expected to seek international cooperation in a program to discourage importation of "hot money" and to establish a permanent type of gold sterilization.

Loans and investments of New York city member banks dropped $105,000,000 in week ended August 11 as holdings of governments declines $71,000,000, to a new loan for recent years. There was a decrease in brokers loans, but business loans were up $18,000,000.

Engineering construction awards for week ended August 11 showed a gain over the same period in 1936.

United Drug reports net of $215,539, or 15 cents a common share, in June 30 quarter, compared with net of $284,687, or 20 cents a share a year ago.

The ICC has ordered an investigation of the Alleghany and Chesapeake Corporations and Robert R. Young, Frank F. Kolbe and Allan P. Kirby. Also the Alleghany and Chesapeake Corporations from proceedings with the proposed reorganization plan.

Atlantic Coast Line reported June net loss of $526,335 compared with loss of $327,630 a year ago. Lackawanna had net income of $8,674, vs. loss of $93,256 a year ago. New York Central showed net loss of $1,174,507 after deducting about $2,500,000 for six months taxes under retirement act, vs. income of $1,045,726.

Underwood Elliot Fisher declared special dividend of 50 cents and payment of $1 on common.

NLRB trial examiner at Kansas City issued a report in which Montgomery Ward & Co. was charged with having formed a company union, the Union of Ward Employees.

Trees Make Best Growth During Spring, Summer

We all notice the sprouting of new leaves and twigs, but very few people know just how trees do grow.

The general idea is that trees grow steadily from spring on into the autumn, but experiments show that 90 per cent of the growth is accomplished in spring and early summer.

A delicate instrument called the dendrograph, rather like those revolving charts which record the ups and downs of the barometer from hour to hour, shows that the trunk of a tree swells at night and shrinks in the daytime, according to a writer in Pearson's London Weekly.

During the day, when the leafy branches are exposed to sunshine and warm currents of air, the watery sap evaporates rapidly from the leaves. The roots cannot draw up water from the soil fast enough to make the loss good and this causes the trunk to shrink. But at night, when it is cooler, the water supply functions again and the elastic wood expands.

The daily changes in the diameter of the trunk vary from about one thousand two hundred fiftieth to about one-two hundredth, but on cool or wet days the trunk is that much broader than it is when the day is hot and dry.

Local Death Record

Gardiner, Aug. 12.—The death of Mrs. Belle Elmendorf, who for some time has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. John McIntosh, occurred on Saturday after a lingering illness. She was ninety-three years old and is survived by one sister of Brooklyn. Funeral services were held at Pine's Undertaking Parlor in New Palitz on Monday afternoon. Burial was in the Moderna Rural Cemetery.

Charles H. Brice, Jr., died at his home in Saugerties on Thursday in his 32nd year. He was a member of the T. B. Cornwell Fire Company and the Eastern Intercollegiate Association of Basketball Referees. He was employed in the electrical department of the Martin Cantine Company plant in Saugerties. He is survived by his wife, Olga Rose Brice; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Brice, and a brother, Stephen Brice. Funeral services will be held from the late home, St. Mary's Church, where services will be held at 10 o'clock, with burial in Mountain View Cemetery.

The funeral of Morgan Keator, who died in Yorkville, N. Y., was held Thursday afternoon from the home of his daughter, Mrs. May Jones of Ulster Park at 2 o'clock and was very largely attended by his many relatives and friends. The Rev. Arthur S. Cole, pastor of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church, assisted by the Rev. John P. Heidenreich, pastor of the Ponchockie Congregational Church, conducted the funeral services at the home. During the services Mrs. Abraham Lowe and Mrs. Abraham Rappey, assisted by Mrs. W. R. Anderson at the home, sang two duets, first "No Night There" and later "The Old Rugged Cross." Many beautiful floral pieces sent by loving relatives and devoted friends testified to the high esteem he was held by all who knew him. The casket bearers were Vernon Keator, Robert Roberts, Grover Haley, Hiram Jones, Abraham Lowe and Edward Shur. The interment was made in the family plot in Montrose cemetery where the Rev. Mr. Cole conducted services as the body was laid to rest in the family plot.

Thomas S. Roach, of 466 Albany avenue, a locomotive engineer on the New York Central Railroad, died suddenly Thursday afternoon. Mr. Roach was stricken Sunday, but his condition was not thought serious until Thursday morning when a sudden change occurred and he was taken to the Kingston Hospital, where he died several hours after being admitted. One of the better known engineers on the West Shore road, Mr. Roach was regarded as one of the most skillful locomotive men in the division. He served with distinction for more than 40 years with the New York Central Lines and was widely known among railroad men. For many years he was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Local No. 901. Born in Adams, a son of the late William Adams and Bridget Roach, he moved to this section in his youth. He was the husband of the former Cora B. Moylan and leaves in addition to his wife, one daughter, Corrine, wife of Attorney Matthew V. Cahill, of this city, also three grandchildren. Mr. Roach for many years was a member of St. Joseph's parish, and funeral services will be held in St. Joseph's Church on Monday morning at 9:30, when a high Mass of requiem will be for the repose of his soul. The funeral cortege will leave his late home on Albany avenue at 9 o'clock. Following the Mass the body will be taken to Jersey City, N. J., for burial in the family plot in the Holy Name Cemetery.

Officers Disappeared

Beirut, Syria, Aug. 13 (AP)—Several high officers of the Iraqi army were reported today to have disappeared after the assassination of Major-General Bekr Sidki Pasha, Iraq's strong man. Sidki, Minister of Defense, and Colonel Mohamed Ali Jawad, air force chief, were shot at Mosul Wednesday by a soldier. General Sidki had been the power behind the Iraqi throne of King Ghazi since a coup d'etat last October.

Lands on Porch

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 13 (AP)—Al Ulrich of North Bergen, youthful parachute jumper, was blown a mile by a strong wind, crashed into the side of a house, breaking a window, and was dumped on a porch roof. Total injury—a tear in the seat of his trousers. He had planned to land yesterday in front of the "Governor's Day" crowd at Camp Hoffman.

150 Firemen Dig For More Bodies

New York, Aug. 13 (AP).—Seeking two missing women, 150 firemen and police dug wearily today in the desolate ruins of a Staten Island tenement building which collapsed during a rainstorm, killing 19 persons.

Exhausted from the long search, they ordered a steam shovel to help sift the tangled, sodden wreckage beneath which they expected to find the broken bodies of Olive Rogers and Louise Heniaz.

District Attorney Frank E. Jones said he would ask a grand jury to investigate the cause of the disaster Monday. Three other investigations were also underway.

Police said the building, formerly used as a factory, crumbled Wednesday night under the impact of a torrent of muddy water tumbling from an overflow storm sewer on a nearby hill.

Flames on all Staten Island public buildings flew at half-staff today for the victims. Patrolman Joseph J. McGeehan, a rescuer, six women, five children and seven other men. Hospital physicians said the condition of four injured was "fair".

Between 40 and 45 persons were made homeless when police ordered seven nearby buildings vacated as a precautionary measure. Ropes were strung about the debris to keep back the crowds.

A citizens committee started a fund to help survivors and bury the impoverished dead. More than $500 was subscribed in a few hours.

Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia, after inspecting the ruins, said the tragedy illustrated the immediate need for widespread slum clearance.

"That building was about 95 years old," he said. "We're doing what we can to replace that type of old housing, but we can't make that kind of housing new."

Community Night at Hasbrouck Park

Community night at Hasbrouck Park will feature a campfire preceded by a watermelon hunt in which everyone is invited to join.

Somewhere in the park, a large watermelon has been carefully hid, and yet is in plain sight. At the sound of the whistle, all present are invited to attempt to find the treasure, and the winner will be privileged to take the melon home to eat.

Preceding the watermelon hunt, a softball game will be held between two of the park teams, and directly following it will be a huge bonfire with a musical program furnished by two bands and some individual musicians. Paul Zucca, genial song leader, has promised to be on hand to lead in community singing.

In case of rain, the community night program will be held in conjunction with next Wednesday's program.

Mrs. Schoonmaker Addresses Kiwanis

Mrs. Nancy Schoonmaker, of Woodstock, writer, traveler, and now Democratic nominee for Congress, was the speaker at Thursday's Kiwanis luncheon meeting.

Mrs. Schoonmaker chose as her subject "Life in Woodstock," and proceeded to draw a word picture that held her audience keenly interested.

The speaker deplored the fact that many outsiders were prone to think of Woodstock as a colony of the frivolous, whereas Woodstock was peopled by folk who earnestly and seriously pursued their crafts or arts.

Mrs. Schoonmaker pointed out that the history of Woodstock goes far back in the history of New York state and can be traced to the old Hardenburgh and Livingston grants.

She then referred to the founding of the crafts colony at Woodstock and paid tribute to Mr. Whitehead, who conceived the idea, and his associates who founded the colony at Woodstock after having searched for a suitable place all over the country.

In telling of the Woodstock theme men found, a small village in the mountains, beautiful and peaceful, she made her listeners enthuse over the choice of Mr. Whitehead and his associates.

The craft colony idea originated in England, she said, and the development dignified the crafts and such was the ideal of the founders of the colony at Woodstock. The early comers to this colony found a native village where much of the commerce was carried on by barter and a trip to Kingston involved a two-hour drive.

The newcomers were not immediately liked by the village folk and it took some time for the newcomers to learn some of the ways of the village, but her talk developed that this had been done so successfully that now there is a unity to the population of Woodstock that has accomplished much.

The speaker told of the development of the new gallery of art through Birge Harrison bringing a group of young art students to Woodstock, founding a school from which artists of international fame have come.

There were paintings made in Woodstock hung throughout the United States, she said, and then told of the music colony and how some of the best musicians, not only of this country but of the world, were a part of the colony or often visitors who contributed their art to the community in concerts and recitals.

Social consciousness and unity of the village was described by the speaker in telling of the library at Woodstock where some 20,000 volumes pass over the desk per week, and of how this library co-operating with the school teachers in the six rural schools in the township, made good books available to the students. And then the traveling library, a trailer with book stacks installed, making weekly trips to the several small communities in the town, so that everyone might have the benefit of these good books. These library activities were supported by still another, the sales held each year of sundry articles contributed by everyone, whereby the sum of six or seven hundred dollars was raised.

The speaker spoke of the success of the recent sesquicentennial pageant and attributed that success to the wholehearted cooperation of the entire community, art colonists and old residents.

Mrs. Schoonmaker emphasized that in Woodstock self expression and culture were developed.

At the conclusion of the talk there were many expressions of pleasure from those who heard Mrs. Schoonmaker.

Flower Show to Top Previous Exhibits

MRS. FRED P. LUTHER.

Mrs. Fred P. Luther, general chairman of the flower festival and baby pageant to be held in the Municipal Auditorium on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 7 and 8, is planning to make this year's show even larger and better than the three preceding shows she has had charge of.

It was while Mrs. Luther was president of the Federation of Women's Clubs in the city that she first organized and staged a flower show. The show proved so successful that the following year she staged an even larger and better show.

So successful was Mrs. Luther in arranging flower shows that Mayor C. J. Hoelscher last year appointed her general chairman to have charge of the flower festival and baby pageant, the proceeds to be used in raising funds to buy additional playground equipment for the city parks. Mrs. Luther at the request of the mayor assumed the responsibility of staging and arranging the show last year, which proved even larger and better than the two preceding shows she had organized and held.

This year's festival and flower pageant is expected to top the three previous shows, and Mrs. Luther has been working for some months on plans for making the show not only more beautiful but a greater success financially than the three preceding shows.

Mrs. Luther, who resides at 50 Downs street, has been a resident of Kingston for the past eight years, coming here from New York city, where she was for many years active in business. Since becoming a resident of Kingston she has been very active in all civic affairs, and her business ability and qualifications she has displayed to advantage in her management of the flower shows she has put on in Kingston.

Miss Adrienne To Assist Yocan
Paul Yocan takes pleasure in announcing the assistance of Miss Adrienne in instruction at his studio of dance, beginning the fall season, September 1.

Miss Adrienne, who began her dance training at the age of eight, is formerly of the Metropolitan Opera House Ballet in which ballet she appeared for 11 consecutive years, followed by engagements in picture theatres, vaudeville and exclusive hotels and clubs in New York city.

Mr. Yocan is particularly enthusiastic over this new association in the studio as he and Miss Adrienne have been close friends since their dancing-school days in New York city, and continuing through their years of professional experience.

Miss Adrienne is truly a daughter of the profession, since her mother, who is also a friend of Mr. Yocan, appeared in the first and second Ziegfeld Follies and many other Broadway productions.

ascertainment of the qualifications of the eligibility of Senator Black for membership on the Supreme Court."

Borah for Confirmation
Senator Borah (R., Ida.) announced he was voting for confirmation of Black on the basis of his personal fitness for the office, and without regard to the constitutional questions. He reserved the right to raise them later.

The motion to report the nomination without further delay was made by Senator Dieterich (D., Ill.), after the committee had discussed technical questions for almost an hour in open session attended by all six members of the subcommittee, a couple of outside senators, and a small group of spectators.

The President at the same time said there was no truth in reports that he was going to press for a constitutional amendment on Supreme Court reorganization.

The President disclosed the attorney-general's views on the Black nomination at a press conference which began simultaneously with the meeting on Capitol Hill of a Senate Judiciary subcommittee named to consider the selection.

Question of Eligibility
At the subcommittee hearing the question of Black's eligibility was raised by Senator Austin (R., Va.) who contended that Black would either be taking an office the emoluments of which had been increased, or an office created, during his Senate service.

ice. In either case, he said, Black was ineligible. Austin also demanded that public hearings be held on the nomination after Senator Dieterich (D., Ill.) had moved to report the nomination favorably to the full Judiciary committee.

The President said Cummings' opinion on Black had been given to him informally and verbally. He did not elaborate his remarks about denying reports that he would submit a constitutional amendment for increasing the size of the Supreme Court.

The President's original court bill, which would have authorized him to name as many as six additional justices, was shelved by the Senate last month. Dieterich made his motion to approve the Black nomination as soon as the committee met.

Boys Treated for Lightning Shock

During the severe electrical storm that broke over the city and vicinity shortly after 7 o'clock Thursday evening a tent along the bank of the Rondout creek in the rear of the residence of Mrs. Richard Sagar at Creek Locks was struck by lightning, and two boys who were in the tent were badly shocked, one of them being rendered unconscious. The boys, Raymond Yerry, 11, and the other, Arnold Shultis, 14, were given first aid by Dr. Rymph of Bloomington, who had been called.

After administering first aid Dr. Rymph had the boys removed to the Benedictine Hospital for further treatment. This afternoon they had so far recovered that it was expected that they would be able to leave the hospital. It was stated that both boys live at Creek Locks.

Discovered Chromium

The existence of chromium as an element was discovered independently in 1798 by Louis Nicolas Vauquelin and Martin Heinrich Klaproth. Many years passed, however, before the free metal was isolated from its compounds, and even then it could be produced only in minute quantities and in an impure state. It was not until about 1900 that chemical technology had advanced sufficiently to permit the production of the metal in commercial quantities.

THIRST BILL HIGH FOR "IRON HORSE"

Water Used in Trains Costs $50,000,000 Yearly.

Washington, D. C. — The fabulous Paul Bunyan, carrying water on both shoulders, would find it a day's work to quench the thirst of the "iron horse."

Railroads spend $50,000,000 annually for approximately 600,000,000 gallons of water required by locomotives and the nation's transportation system.

The Association of American Railroads reports that the water used would fill a channel 100 yards wide and nine feet deep, extending from New York to San Francisco.

Also, if Paul Bunyan should drop the buckets on a cold day, the water would freeze to a thickness of one foot over an area fifty-four miles square.

The inhabitants of New York city could survive for two years and those of a city the size of Washington could survive for 17 years on the water consumed in one year by railroad locomotives.

Railroads have saved millions of dollars annually and increased safety and efficiency in operation by chemically treating water consumed by the "iron horse" to prevent rust and scale from forming on the inside of boilers, the association reported.

Additional scientific studies now are under way to determine what further improvements can be made in the water supply, it was said.

The bureau of mines at New Brunswick, N. J., Ohio State university and the University of Michigan are among the more important centers of such research.

One large railroad, operating under typical conditions, reported only one engine failure caused by water quality in 20,000,000 miles in the last four years.

It is estimated that a passenger locomotive uses from seventy to 120 gallons of water per mile, while a freight locomotive uses from 150 to 350 gallons per mile. The tenders of present-day trains hold as much as 25,000 gallons.

State Taxes Convicts $1 for Anti-Crime Bureau

Raleigh, N. C. — A scientific crime-prevention laboratory, authorized by the 1937 North Carolina legislature, is being financed by convicts.

Under provisions of the enabling act $1 is collected from each person convicted in state criminal courts to apply toward operating costs of the bureau and for dependents of law officers killed while on duty.

The division is 50-50. The new bureau will be established with ballistic, blood analysis and poison investigators. Its officers will co-operate with the attorney general in investigating lynchings, mob violence, election frauds and other crimes.

It is the second step in the two-fold program to make the state unhealthy for criminals. A new radio broadcasting system will be opened before early summer for highway patrol and county officers. Five stations, with the central transmitter at Raleigh, are under construction.

Each of the 100 automobiles and 103 highway patrol motorcycles will be equipped with radio receiving sets, and sheriffs' offices will tune receiving sets to the highway broadcasting system.

Tattooing Expert Makes Lips Permanently Pink

Leningrad — A twenty-five year old woman who lost her upper lip and part of her nose in an accident now does not even worry about lipstick following an unusual accomplishment in plastic surgery.

Leningrad Institute of Traumatology surgeons transplanted flesh from the woman's body to form a new nose and lip, but discovered the new lip to be unnatural because of its whiteness.

They called in a tattooing expert who used his needle to color the lip a permanent pink which never needs touching up.

No More Rabbits in Hat for Magicians in Reich

Berlin. — An edict from the national Chamber of Theaters forbade stage magicians to use eggs, milk or other eatables in their acts, asserting that such "waste" of food was not permissible under the Nazi four-year plan for economic self-sufficiency for Germany. Severe punishment of any magician ignoring the decree was threatened.

The decree also forbade magicians to explain their trick publicly.

He Lived on Liquids 10 Years; Now Eats

Seattle. — Unable to eat for 10 years because of a throat ailment, Carl L. Peterson, seventy-eight years old, of Kirkland, Wash., was relieved by two operations performed here.

"I pretty near forgot how to eat," he said. "But I didn't forget how to enjoy food." His first meal consisted of ice cream and mashed potatoes.

While he was disabled, Peterson was fed milk and other liquid foods through a tube.

RONDOUT - HUDSON NAVIGATION NEWS

The California, one of the largest tankers owned by the Texaco interests, was anchored off Kingston Point Thursday unloading gasoline into barges for distribution to upstate points.

The ship carries 120,000 barrels of gasoline, and received her cargo at Port Arthur, Texas, six days ago. The California came up the coast bound for Kingston Point, which is used as a distribution base for gasoline going to points on the Barge Canal and the St. Lawrence river.

The Texaco Company originally consigned another tanker, the Reaper, to this territory, but at the present time she is plying the Pacific coast and only recently figured in the saving of a number of lives from a distressed vessel on the Pacific Ocean.

Two tugs were waiting for the last bit of gasoline from the California yesterday. The Kevin Moran had a Texas barge in tow for Syracuse while the All American, a Texaco tug, was being loaded at the tanker.

The E. G. B. Riley, a red and black tanker, docked at Sleightsburgh Thursday, to discharge a cargo of gasoline. When she steamed in the Rondout creek, her deck was almost awash. From a distance the Riley gives the appearance of a tugboat hauling a flat oil barge, but a closer inspection will show that it is all one boat.

The diesel tug Thomas A. Feeney is at Rensselaer with the oil barge Onondaga. A cargo of fuel oil will be taken on at the Rensselaer distributories for Rochester.

A flat barge, the Pactor of New York, is being loaded with scrap iron at the new Dwyer loading platform at the Wilbur sand bank. Construction work on this platform has been going on for a number of weeks with the flat dock derrick barge Nan, of the Dwyer Lightage, being used as the office of the operations. The Island Dock dredge Ekepus dug out the creek bottom in front of the new loading platform several weeks ago.

The pile driver of Louis Sturgeon is busily engaged in driving piles and building a dock front at the new Mingo Hollow trap rock workings. When the dock is completed, barges will be able to load there with rock brought from the crusher on a belt conveyor system.

The barges Davin, Byrnes, Thurston and Andy have arrived in Buffalo with the tug Sterling, of the Island Dock, in charge.

The tug Dynamic towed the barges W. Frank, Buster, Mary K., and Agnes C. to Solvay, where they will be loaded with soda ash.

REAL BATTLE OF THE CENTURY AT PHOENICIA

What promises to be a real battle of the century will take place this evening at Phenicia when the married men and the single men of the village will clash in a softball game. William Malloy will manage the married men's team tonight in the absence of the regular manager who will be unable to play. Joe Gordon of the single men's team is reported as a hold-out but the married men charge that he is refusing to play because of his belief that his team will take a defeat at the hands of the married men. Bill McGrath will do the pitching for the single men and Dave Hilson will toss them over for the married men. The game is scheduled to be called at 6:30 o'clock.

Colonials at Carbondale.

Manager Fred Davi, of the Kingston Colonials, will take his team to Carbondale, Pa., tonight for a scratchlight game, and Sunday play in Greenfield, Mass.

Indians Killed White Spy

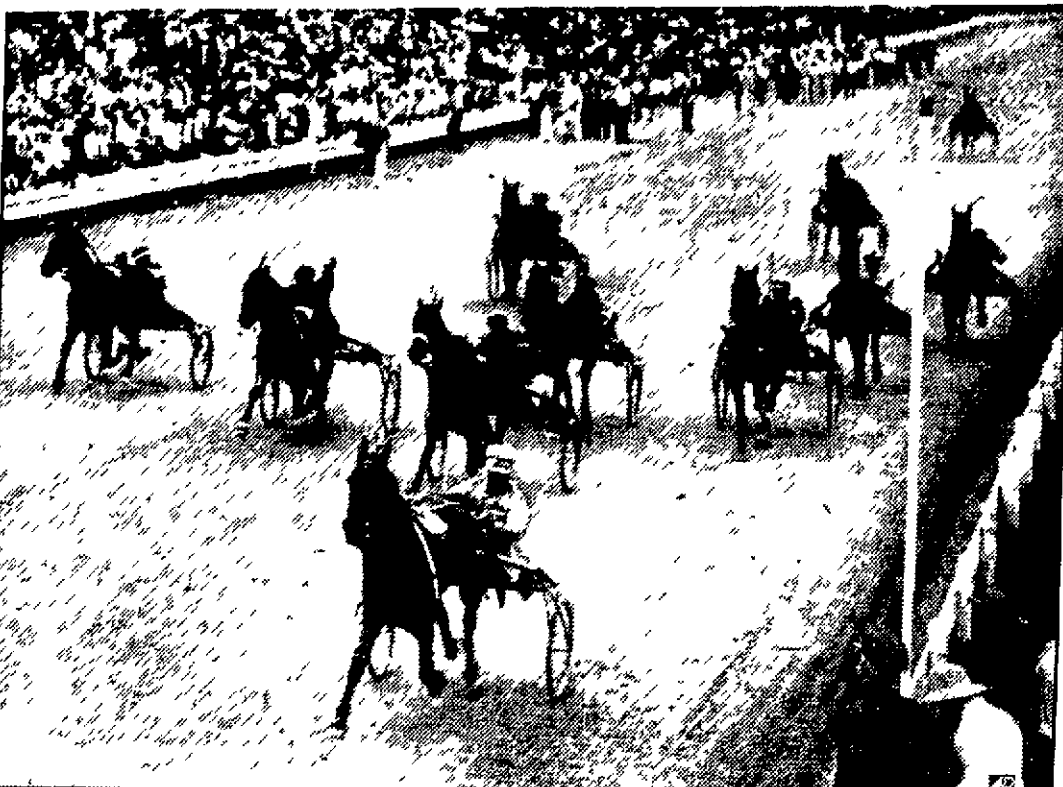

Although Michigan has been a battleground in several wars, Saginaw was the scene of one of the few spy executions ever recorded in the Detroit Free Press. During the War of 1812, the Americans were troubled as to which side the Saginaw tribe of Indians there would take. Jacob Smith, an Indian trader, sent with two assistants, ostensibly on a trading trip, but actually to learn where their sympathies were enlisted. One of the assistants drank too much and revealed their actual mission. Smith and his other assistant fled, leaving their stock. The one who exposed the plan was killed as a spy but the others escaped. Smith later again won the good will of the Indians and opened a trading post where Flint now stands in 1819 and operated it until his death in 1825.

Pliny's Panther Story

Pliny's story about the panther was: Philinus, a philosopher, saw a panther lying in the road, evidently waiting for some one to pass. He tried to go around the animal, but the panther headed him off, rolled over on its back to attract his attention, and showed signs of grief. When he attempted to draw away, the animal fixed her claws in his garment, evidently desiring him to follow her. When at last he recognized what she wanted he followed her and she led him to a pit into which her cubs had fallen. Moved by pity, he helped the young ones out, and the happy mother showed her joy and gratitude by frisking around him, and by escorting him with her cubs trotting after her, to the edge of the desert.

SHIRLEY HANOVER, OUTSIDER, WINS HAMBLETONIAN

Shirley Hanover, given only a 10-to-one chance to take the first heat, turned in a brilliant speed exhibition to win the rich Hambletonian, the Kentucky Derby of harness racing, at Goshen, N. Y. The light-waisted filly, from Lawrence B. Sheppard's Hanover, Pa., farms, whipped eleven other great three-year-olds in the classic. With Henry Thomas handling the reins, she won in straight heats, 2 01 12 and 2 01 14. This photo shows the winner crossing the finish line well ahead. Leading the other horses is De Sota, the favorite.

3 Williams Lake Representatives at Adirondack Meet

The Williams Lake Athletic Association will be represented by three of its swimmers and divers at the Senior Championship of the Adirondack Association of the A. U. Saturday afternoon in the Mid-City Pool, Albany.

This meet is the outstanding contest of the outdoor swimming season and is conducted each year to determine the champion of each event in the Adirondack Association.

Among the Williams Lake representatives will be Emile Tallet in the 200-yard breaststroke event. Emile is the present champion having won the event last year at the Prospect Park Pool in Troy. In that race the Williams Lake swimmer established a new Adirondack Association record.

Charles Schneider, another Williams Lake representative, will be seen in the diving event. Charles, who hails from Ohioville, is a coming diver and may be counted on to do much. He will be under a double disadvantage this Saturday, however, because he is just coming back after a two weeks' lay-off caused by a head injury and also because of the fact that he will be diving from a one-meter board instead of his choice, the three-meter board. Schneider will have a crack at the three-meter championship on his home board on August 29 at the Adirondack Association meet featuring that and several other events.

The last local representative will be Johnny Vaughn in the 100-yard freestyle. Johnny returned recently from a two-years' stay at an army post in Hawaii, where he won the championship in this event.

Closis Behind, 1-6, When It Rained

Rain halted the Grunewald-Closis A. C. baseball game at the Athletic Field Thursday evening. In the last of the third inning, with the Grunewalds leading 6-1, Angelo Closis had challenged the Bakers to the game to prove his club was equal to the champions of the first half in the City League. "Guess Closis had better start his men at softball," Manager Charley Diers said when asked whether he'd pit his Home Leaders against the team again.

With one defeat in the third, the Home Leaders belted Leo Komosa for four safeties, collected two walks and were aided by two errors. Twice the Bakers hit with the bases loaded.

Komosa gave six hits in all, two of them singles by Eddie Minasian, and a double by Dulin. Joe Mahar was on the mound for the Home Leaders, and gave three hits, one a double by Jim Steigerwald.

Freeman Baseball Trophy on Display

The Freeman trophy to be awarded to the championship team of the City Baseball League is on display in the window of Safford & Scudder, jewelers of Wall street.

Today, the trophy arrived and was placed in the show window for public observation and will remain there until after the play-off for the City pennant which takes place next week.

Farr Loses Welsh Title

London, Aug. 13 (AP)—The British Boxing Board today ruled that Tommy Farr had vacated his Welsh heavyweight boxing championship because he failed to defend the title during the last three months. Farr is in training at Long Branch, N. J., for his attempt to lift the world's heavyweight crown from Joe Louis at Yankee Stadium, New York, August 26.

Some 3,000 special events, from sports to opera, will be staged during the 288-day run of the Golden Gate International Exposition in 1939.

Colonial Duckpin Clambake Sunday

Kenneth Van Etten, secretary of the Colonial Duckpin League, today said that the small ball keggers will hold their clambake Sunday at Amell's grove near Glenelder Park.

All Duckpinners going to the bake are asked to meet at the Colonial Bowling Alleys on North Front street, Sunday at 11:30 a. m.

There will be a special meeting of the officers and captains of the league Friday at 8 p. m., and all those concerned are asked to please make a special effort to attend.

Registered Shoot Sunday, Ulster-Rochdale, Aug. 22

The fourth and final registered 16-yard trap-shoot of the season will be held at the Ulster County Gun Club Sunday, August 15. Fifteen gunners participated in the July shoot and arrangements are being made to entertain the largest crowd of the season Sunday afternoon.

The program will feature high gun prize; the 100-target 16-yard shoot and a 50-target yardage handicap event.

The range will be open at 1 p. m. and the public is invited.

Thursday's Sket
Thursday afternoon seven skeet shooters participated in the regular weekly practice shoot. Bob Martin paced the gunners with 47 out of 50. R. L. Smith, of the Troy Skeet Club, on a visit to Kingston stopped off at the Ulster club and shot one string of 25 straight.

At about 8:15 in the evening members of the Rochdale and Gun Club of Poughkeepsie drove into the club grounds. The hour was too late for fur-

(By The Associated Press.)

It's lucky for the National League that the Pittsburgh Pirates and Boston Bees know something about vaudeville.

From that extinct brand of entertainment he Bucs and Bees borrowed the "stooge" idea, and, giving it a little different twist, have put the Pirates on Chicago's National League leading Cubs and the second-place New York Giants, respectively.

For picking on these two outfits as their favorite stooges, the Bucs and Bees ought to be voted a world series cut by whatever team wins the pennant—provided, of course, it's neither the Cubs nor Giants.

A stooge, for the benefit of those who can't remember as far back as vaudeville, was the fellow who acted as a comedian's joke. Now, neither the Pirates nor Bees have any great reputations as comedians. But they're certainly having a great joke at the expense of the Cubs and Giants so far this year.

The Pirates fall apart at the merest mention of the Giants, and barely managed to hold their own against such rank outsiders as the Bees, Dodgers and Phillies. But whenever they tangle up with the Cubs, they usually wind up the loser's seat. Yesterday, they came through with their eighth decision in 14 starts against the Cubs this year by knocking the ears off four fingers for a 16-6 victory.

The Bees, on the other hand, collapse at the sight of almost every other outfit in the league, until they meet the Giants. Then they're the boss. They followed this formula yesterday with a 6-4 victory by virtue of Tony Cucinello's big bat, and stretched their season margin over the Giants to seven wins in 12 starts.

Yanks Coast
As a result, while the Yankees are coasting along on a 11½ game lead in the American League, the Cubs' edge isn't nearly so secure at ½ game in the race for first place. The Giants are limping in second place by only 2½ games over the come-backing Cardinals.

There's no such one-club jinx where the Yanks are concerned in their American League runaway. They made it three out of four in their current series with the Red Sox yesterday by splitting a twin bill, winning the nightcap 5-3 as Joe DiMaggio walked his 34th homer after dropping the opener 16-10 as seven pitchers took a terrific beating. The series victory upheld the Yanks' reputation of having lost only one series against a second-place club in the last two seasons.

The Phillies came within half a game of climbing out of the National League cellar with a twin win over the Dodgers, 2-2 and 8-2, behind some effective pitching by Hugh Mulcahy and Claude Passeau. The Cardinals and Reds were idle.

Detroit's Tigers managed only a split with the White Sox, winning the opener 11-3 on Charlie Gehring's big bat, and dropping the nightcap 6-4 in 10 innings, as Jimmy Dykes pinch-hit knocked the winning run in. The Senators squeezed out a 5-4 decision over the Athletics. Willis Hudlin blanked the Browns 7-0 for a Cleveland victory.

Two Leading Linksmen Paired

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP)—Two of America's leading amateur golfers—Chuck Koelsch, of Michigan, and Little Frankie Straft, of Brooklyn—were seeded in opposite brackets today as a field of 32 began a match play in the Syracuse Yacht and Country Club's eighth annual invitational golf tournament.

Koelsch, holder of the yacht club's course record, fired a brilliant incoming 35 yesterday to match a weak outcoming 40 and posted a 75 to share second spot with Starfack three strokes behind the medalists.

The Ulster Gun Club has been trying for some time with little success to schedule team shoots with skeet clubs in the vicinity. It was mainly through the efforts of A. G. Benoit that this match was brought about.

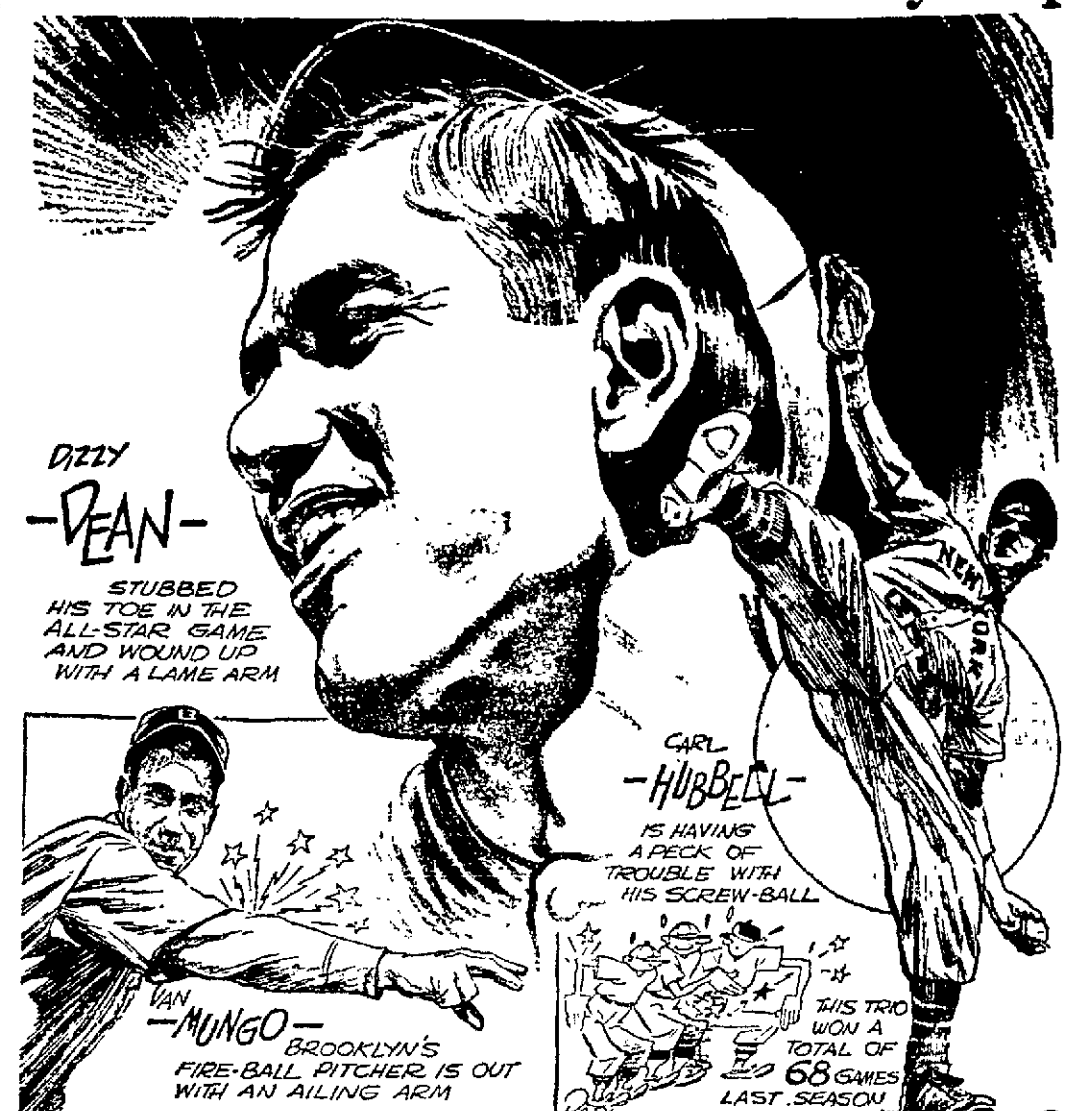

In the past two years the Poughkeepsie shooters have defeated the Ulster team in three, different matches. The margins of defeat have been rather slim and the local club hopes to wind up in the winning column in this match.

Sket scores marked up Thursday afternoon are as follows:

Martin 24+23=47
Benoit 22+24=46
Truck 23+22=45
Coles 17+23=40
Koenig 21+16=37
R. L. Smith 25+25

Troubled Trio

One of the most amazing developments of the baseball campaign was the topping of the National League's Big Three hurlers—Carl Hubbell, Dizzy Dean, and Van Lingle Mungo.

Not long ago they were at the top. And now? Hubbell is Bill Terry's major headache. The erstwhile screwball master seems to have lost all effectiveness. Batters who used to be so helpless they couldn't touch the Hub for foul balls are knocking the cover off his deliveries. Hubbell started the season well enough—adding eight victories to the 16 he carried over from 1936. Then came a losing streak that saw the great left-hander knocked out of the box six times in a row. Carl apparently was regaining his old form when he ran afoul the heavy bats of the American League sluggers in the all-star games at Washington.

Dean's outlook is anything but bright. He had all-star troubles, too—he injured his toe in the all-star contest and when he got back after a layoff he had a sore arm.

Mungo's plight is worst of all. The Brooklyn fireball pitcher has had a hectic season. Kicking over the traces repeatedly, he has been in bad with the management most of the time. He complained of a lame back before the all-star game, but insisted on taking his turn against the Americans despite the fact Burleigh Grimes advised him not to. Now Van is back home recuperating from an operation. He has lost his tonsils and about 20 pounds.

Hubbell, Dean, Mungo. Between them last year they won 68 games and carried off most of the National League's pitching honors. This year they are having most of the league's troubles.

Shirley Hanover Turns in Fast Time in Hambletonian

Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 12 (AP)—1:59 1/2.

The race show that Henry Thomas won the Hambletonian with Shirley Hanover, but the popular 47-year-old trainer of the Hanover, Pa., shoe farms says it was his five-year-old Patricia Sheppard who was largely responsible for the record-smashing triumph.

While Thomas was driving Shirley to a straight heat victory in the fastest time ever registered by a winner in trotting's blue ribbon event, he carried in his hip pocket a four-leaf clover and let her sent him by the little daughter of Lawrence B. Sheppard, part owner of the Pennsylvania breeding farms.

"Don't let anybody tell you it was I who won," declared Thomas. "Just look at that good luck charm I carried. I couldn't miss with that in my pocket."

Lawrence Sheppard, manager of the farm in which his father, H. D. Sheppard, and C. N. Myers also hold an interest, gave much of the credit to Thomas, however.

"He brought Shirley up to the race in the best of condition and then did the fine job of driving her," said Sheppard.

In trotting the first mile in 2:01½ and the second in 2:01½ Shirley not only turned in the fastest time ever registered by a winner in 12-year history of the rich stake but carried on in the way of her famous mother—Hanover's Bertha. The latter won the 1930 Hambletonian and later in the same year set her mark of

Was Not Favorite

The victory, achieved before a crowd of 35,000 after the race had been postponed from Wednesday, was worth $19,916.92 with an additional $600 going to the three partners as nominator of the winner.

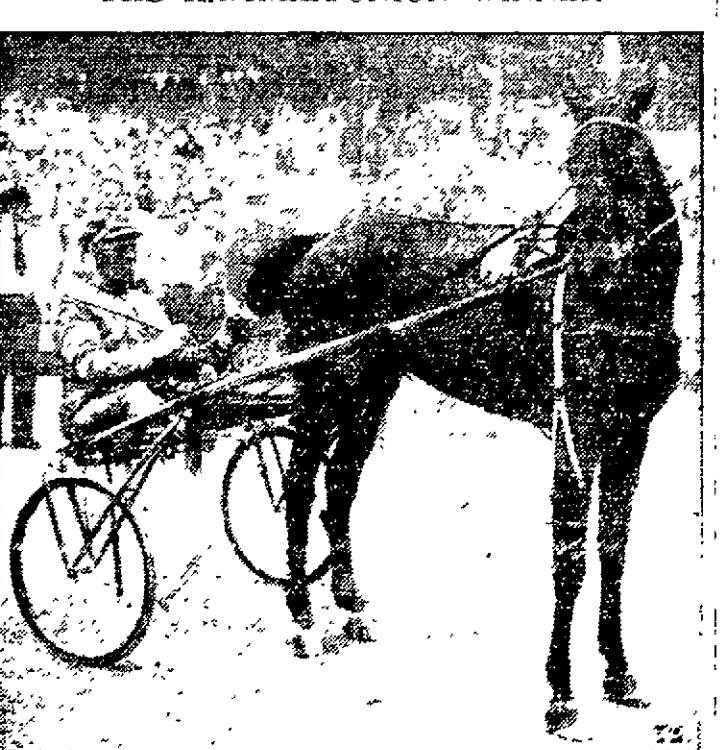

Shirley Hanover was given little chance in the auction pools, where Paul Bowser's DeSota of Boston was favored. She commanded no better than 10 to 1 respect to win the first heat.

Once past the turn in each heat, Thomas said he was confident of victory. She trailed E. Roland Harrison's Farr of Goshen, to the three-quarter pole in the first mile and then went on to win by a half length from the Harrison filly with third place going to W. N. Reynolds' Schnapps of Winston-Salem, N. C.

DeSota Second
Earl's Spencer, owned by Carl F. Shropshire of St. Petersburg, Fla., contested the issue to the three-quarter mark in the final mile but faded back as Shirley went on to win by four lengths. DeSota came up to finish second and share second and third money with Farr, which was fourth in the last dash.

The race was marred by the setting down of Dr. H. M. Parrish of Urbana, Ohio, and Dunbar Bostwick, wealthy Long Island polo player, for playing a big part in delaying the start of the first heat for nearly 30 minutes. Charlie Lacey took Parrish's place behind Delphia Hanover while Bostwick turned Hollywood Audrey's reins over to his trainer, Harry Whitney.

THE HAMBLETONIAN WINNER

CHARLIE BOCK

Here's Charlie Bock caught by the cameraman delivering one of his fast ones in a warm-up at the Athletic Field, where he may see action on the mound for the Berardi A. C. this evening against Jimmy DeCicco's Hedicks. Julius Chick is slated to start. Bock will be ready to answer the call if he's needed. The game will commence at 6:15 o'clock sharp.

Here's Hal Surface, of Kansas City, Mo., a promising player who has his eye on the No. 5 spot in the national ranking. Yesterday he breezed to a 6-1, 6-1 triumph over John McDermid, the Princeton University professor from Fort Worth, Texas.

Parker already holds two decisions over Surface, but the ambitious youngster is sure he can take the cup player.

Alice Marble Wins
The United States' ranking woman singles player, made her way into the finals of the women's tourney by trimming Mrs. Sylvia Henrotin, of France, the defending titleholder, 6-2, 6-0. Jadwiga Jedrejewska, the Polish champion, plays Gracyn Wheeler, of Los Angeles, today in the other semifinal.

Frank Sluiter, a former Davis Cup player, narrowly escaped disaster in his third round match with Lewis Wetherell, of Santa Anna, Cal., yesterday, but managed to win 6-2, 2-6, 6-4. Fumituru Nakano, a member of the Japanese cup team, eliminated Arthur Hendrix, of Lakeland, Fla., 6-2, 6-4, in the final match of the same round.

Mako, after defaulting in the singles, paired with Judge in a round match with Julius Heldman, the 1936 national junior champion, and Owen Anderson, of Los Angeles. The youthful pair had the Wimbledon and national champions at match point in the second set and forced Judge and Mako to the limit before they won 5-7, 11-9, 7-5.

Only 3 U.S. Boxers Win at Dallas

Dallas, Aug. 13 (AP)—Thanks to eight granite-tough youngsters who made their bids for Pan-American glory last night, the south American team stood in a vastly satisfying position today in the international boxing games.

The Dons from the southern continent, however, have yet to show their wares as display more ingenuously than their compatriots exhibited in the 11 bouts last night. It wouldn't be much of a fight.

Two national champions and the Texas welterweight champion, Arthur Dorell of Tyler, were the only United States team members capable of solving successfully the invaders' attacks.

Dorell, wittily over Jose Santa Rosa, Brazilian sailor; William Speary, flyweight from Nanticoke, Pa., defeated Pedro Umpierrez, Uruguay, and Joseph Kelley, also of Nanticoke, defeated Jack Texende, Brazilian marine, in a battle of lightweights.

Frankie Mirable of Albany, the lightweight who knocked out Willie Smith, international champion, a month ago at the Kingston Municipal Auditorium, is one of the U. S. boxers yet to show.

Mirable belongs to the Adirondack Division of the A. A. U. He was developed by Ben M. Becker, chairman of boxing in this district, who has been coaching him for more than five years.

Marion Miley Wins
Chicago, Aug. 13 (AP)—The 18th annual women's western derby championship was golf history today, with its last chapter again written by Marion Miley, of Cincinnati. Miss Miley, daughter of a Lexington, Ky., professional, won the title yesterday for a third straight year, this time with a record performance of 309 strokes, 11 under par and the old mark set in 1932 by Mrs. S. L. Reinhardt, of Chicago. For a third straight year the runner-up was Patty Berg, the Little Minneapolis star, who on the second round came home with a six-under-par 74, for a new record.

HOW TO RUN BASES —THE RYAN WAY.

New York (AP)—John (Blondy) Ryan has returned to the New York Giants, leaving at Milwaukee the memory of one of the most unorthodox plays ever pulled in baseball.

Shortly before Ryan left Milwaukee, he played in a game at Minneapolis. Opening the fifth inning with a sharp hit to center, Ryan tried to stretch it into a double.

Red Kress, Minneapolis shortstop, received the throw from the outfield in ample time to tag out Ryan. Ryan fooled him by stopping a few feet short of the bag, turning, and starting for third. After three or four steps he "reversed his field" and started back for second. But he did not touch the bag, cutting inside of it and dashing back to first.

Kress was too befuddled to do anything.

Umpire Jim Tobin called Ryan safe at first, explaining he had not touched second and therefore was not guilty of running the bases in reverse order.

Victor in Cuban Meet Last Spring Will Box in Five Round Semi-Final

Champion Ordered by A.A.U. To Fill in for Cozy Storace on Account of Injury—Is Smart Boxer and Hard Puncher.

Ralph DeCastro of Rome, international welterweight champion, will appear tonight at the Municipal Auditorium on the card of bouts sponsored by the mayor's industrial committee.

This little gladiator, who boxed in Cuba with Matt Peretti and Carl Delberta, Ben M. Becker's other two members of the United States team, last spring, will take the place of Cozy Storace.

Storace cannot appear on account of a cut eye, but his absence will not detract from the card.

DeCastro won his international title by his punching ability, and Frankie Perna, his Newark opponent tonight, is in for a tough time when they climb through the ropes to do five rounds or less.

Ever since he won in Cuba, DeCastro has been in great demand, and King was unable to procure him for a local match. However, under orders from the Adirondack A. A. U. to fill in for Storace, Ralph will be here tonight.

Ben M. Becker, chairman of the boxing division of the Adirondack body, informed the mayor's industrial committee concerning DeCastro as follows:

"In Ralph DeCastro Kingston will see one of the best boxers ever developed among the amateurs and I think the turn of fate that threw Cozy Storace out of the competition will turn into a real treat for the patrons of the auditorium program."

DeCastro's opponent, Frankie Perna, is regarded as one of the most sensational battlers around Newark.

From the stables of scrappers in New Jersey will come the scooter state champion in the lightweight division, Benny Williams, a two listed puncher who will fight it out with Herbie Fouts of Rome in one of the special five rounds.

Williams won the Golden Gloves title in New Jersey and was runner-up in New York. Besides being a smart fighter, he has plenty of dynamite and is pleased to put up one of the best scraps tonight. Phil Vinc, the Rome middleweight who defeated Tony Plesco, southpaw cyclone from Albany, will tangle with Billy Ryan of Newark in the main event, which should furnish plenty of thrills and some hard punching.

Joe LaTorle, New Jersey state bantamweight champion, and Don Aiken, boss of the 112 pound class in the Adirondack A. A. U., will furnish the fireworks in the other five rounds.

Davey Hopp, Sammy Offerman's lightweight, will replace Joe Nagay of East Kingston, who has decided to give up the boxing sport. Hopp will appear in a three rounder with an Albany boy.

Tony Miller, Hudson heavy-weight will trade leather with Bill Wright of East Kingston, who has decided to give up the boxing sport. Hopp will appear in a three rounder with an Albany boy.

The big blonde Golden Glover from Columbia county lost two matches to Sergeant Charley Perry of West Point and was relegated to the novice class again. He's determined to fight his way out.

Kid Robinson, Gage street lightweight will meet Louis Corrali, Catskill Iron Man, in the other three round preliminary.

Seats have been selling rapidly, and a record crowd is expected for tonight's program billed as an inter-state tournament between the New York and New Jersey teams.

Starting time is 9 o'clock.

Milwaukee—Sammy Angott, 130½, Louisville, Ky., outpointed Everett Rightmire, 128, Sioux City, Ia., (10).

Homemaking at The County Fair

The Homemaking Department of the Ulster County Fair will have interesting exhibits this year.

In Section V, furniture and slip covers, will show evidence of the revival of one of the oldest of occupations in the making of furniture, that is, cane and rush bottomed chairs. Prizes will be awarded for work of this type, as well as reconditioned settees, lounge, wing or club chair; reconditioned occasional, bed room chairs; refinished piece; slip cover; homemade table, homemade chair, homemade stool.

Section VI will reflect the cleverness of milady, or milord at that, with the needle, as needlework will be exhibited therein. The following types will be judged: Afghan, knitted or crocheted; bags, embroidered, headed, crocheted or knitted; table or dresses scarfs, embroidered, crocheted, or both; luncheon scarfs, towels; needlepoint; bedspread, or tablecloth; coat; dresses; gloves, hat, mittens; sweaters for men or women.

Section VII will disclose to those interested the clever handwork in crafts and hobbies. In blockprinting articles may be submitted as follows: Bag, curtain, cushion, dresser or table scarf, wall hanging; in metalwork, there will be candlesticks, book-ends, bowl, plate or tray, bracelet, pin or clip, napkin ring, paper cutter, nut dish or ash tray.

In stamp collections exhibited, all exhibits are to be mounted on cardboard sheets, 8 1/2 by 11 inches, with peelable hinges. Stickers will be placed on back when entry fee is paid, exhibitors thereby identified only by number.

In the photograph section, any picture in which the principle interest is the child, or children, at play, asleep, in any mood, or costume; sports, hobbies, recreations, avocations, action, animals, etc., is listed as eligible. Scenes and still life studies, informal portraits of adults.

Cavalier Chic

The dashing hats worn by old-time cavaliers inspired this fall chapeau. Sapphire blue ostrich cascades from its high crown to its stiff brim and a black satin ribbon, tied under the chin, anchors it in place. (Design by Harry Solomons).

Hitler Babies Go To School Feet First

Nazi theory of education holds that you must give the child a strong, well-disciplined body before you can begin to train his mind. So Teuton tots get:

1. AGILE TOES

German kindergarten pupils, ages 2 to 6, learn to discipline their muscles by picking up pebbles with their toes.

2. STRONG LEGS

Exercises in walking develop proper carriage—the better for marching, perhaps, if war comes.

3. LOTS OF FOOD

No matter what a child's home condition may be, the government sees that he gets a correctly balanced diet at school.

4. PLENTY OF REST

The nine-hour school day (8 a. m. to 5 p. m.) includes a regular period for afternoon naps—outdoors, when weather permits.

DON'T BE "RESIGNED" TO HAVING A COLORLESS PERSONALITY

Your Personality Fault May Be Here!

Personality is just one of those things, you say. You have it or you haven't it. And if you don't have it—you give up?

Well, look at this trio of girls at a dance—and see how wrong you are! What makes the girl in the middle a radiant personality—the other two duds? Little differences, easy to remedy.

The doleful look of the girl on the right mirrors her state of mind. "Is my nose shiny?" she worries. "Suppose NOBODY asks me to dance!"

All she needs to do to appear gay and charming is to use a little will-power and take her mind off herself. She could say to the other girls, "Do you dance the rumba?" Or listen to the orchestra, try to remember the words of the tune.

As for the girl on the left! That horrible limp posture is the reason the boys don't dance with her. They're sure she'd have to be dragged around the floor.

But if she would sit erect and put both feet flat on the floor, she could look as alert and vivacious as the girl next her, who's about to dance with the attractive young man.

How magnetic that girl is! She radiates interest in others. When she meets a stranger she gives him a direct look, smiling, friendly, she talks not about herself but about them. She gives little compliments: "You dance marvellously, Jack." "How charming you look, Anne."

Surely you can do as much! Get rid of little personality faults, blossoms into magnetism and charm with the help of our 40-page booklet, SECRETS OF A WINNING PERSONALITY. For you can, if you want to, be one of the sought-after. It's up to you!

Send 15 cents for our booklet, SECRETS OF A WINNING PERSONALITY, to Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Institute, 109 West 15th street, New York, N. Y. Write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, and the NAME of booklet.

IN COUNTY GRANGES

Patroon Grange
Accord, Aug. 12—A very pleasant evening was enjoyed Monday, August 9, when 20 members of Rosendale Grange visited Patroon Grange, which also had 28 members present with Master Vernon Barnhart presiding. A very interesting program was presented by the lecturer of the Grange as follows:

Opening Song—Smile, Smile, Smile.
Reading—The Employers Will Disappear, says Harry Bridges.
Piano Solo—Shine on Harvest Moon.
Talk—The Milk Situation.
Scene and Song—In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree—by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelder and Grange Quiz—By Prof. Put Em.
Mr. Help Me, Gross Schoonmaker Judge.
Song—Lights Out and Shanty in Old Shanty Town—Lillian Davis, Jennie Kelder, Aaron Bell.
Recreation—Game.
Closing Song—Blest Be the Tie That Binds.
Towards the close of the meeting the master and lecturer of Rosendale Grange were called upon to address the members present and responded briefly.

The usual social hour was then enjoyed with refreshments served by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Kelder, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Freid, Mrs. Ella Miller and Mrs. Lizzie Bell.

Patroon Grange has the distinction this year of having one of its members, Sister Merriam Freid, as the winner of the Grange speaking contest which was held at Highland Grange hall on August 6, when she eliminated contestants from several adjoining counties. Mrs. Freid, dressed in a very appropriate Indian costume, gave as her subject, "The Imaginary Speech of King Philip" and will now represent Ulster County Grange at the New York State Fair at Syracuse in September where she will compete with winners from other counties of the state in the final contest of New York State Grange.

Plattekill.
Regular meeting of Plattekill Grange will be held at the Grange on Saturday evening, August 14. The literary program will be in charge of the service and hospitality committee.

Hosts and hostesses: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Newkirk, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Newkirk, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoffman, Kate and Robert Jansen, Dr. and Mrs. Merritt.

The annual Grange clambake will be held at the Grange Hall on Saturday evening, August 21. The following committee will have charge: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schoonmaker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cronk, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. William Nabor, Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Edmunds, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hartney, Mr. and Mrs. Lacsos Thomas, the Rev. and Mrs. Philip Solbjor, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Newkirk, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Newkirk, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood. Ticket committee: Burton Ward, Herman Cook, Mrs. F. E. Lozier, Eugene Paltridge, George Eckert, Lacsos Thomas, Ralph Newkirk, John Chase, Susie Posler, Bessie Harris, Nelson McElhenney.

Supper will be served about 6:30 and among the good eats will be "hot dogs" roasted over a fire, a variety of salads, rolls, watermelon, coffee and iced tea. Each person attending is asked to bring knife, fork, spoon and cup.

If the weather is too stormy for an outdoor picnic, it will be held at Stone Ridge Grange Hall.

Lake Katrine Grange
The Lake Katrine Grange will hold its regular August meeting at the Grange Hall, Lake Katrine, Monday evening, August 16. The play, "A Bachelor's Baby", recently put on at the Stone Ridge Grange Hall will be part of the entertainment for that night. All members urged to attend on this evening.

Dance and Card Party
Tonight, there will be a dance and card party at the Maple Hill school, under P.T.A. auspices. Music will be furnished by the Ginger Snaps.

Success is the ability to get along with other people—and like it.

COMPANION OF MISSING TEACHER

George Wallace Thorpe, shown here with his daughter, was the companion of Charlotte Lieberman, 33-year-old Bridgeport, Conn., teacher, when their craft overturned in Long Island Sound while they were sail boating. A score of boats searched the Sound seeking a clue to the teacher's fate. Thorpe swam ashore and officials quoted him as saying that he tied his companion to an oyster stake when she became exhausted. (Associated Press Photo).

Black Prospects Rosy Somehow

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP).—Senator Hugo L. Black of Alabama hadn't been in Washington a year until he bought a house on the installment plan.

Now it looks as if he, Mrs. Black and their three children really are here to stay. If the Senate confirms his nomination to the supreme court, the Senator ought to get that house paid for ahead of time.

A supreme court justice gets $20,000 a year. As Senator, Black has been getting $10,000.

It is his home life, friends said today, that means more than anything to the 51-year-old Alabamian. He takes only a passing interest in golf, and only his conception of responsibility brings him to the office after dark or on week-ends.

The Senator is a cigar-chewer of the old school. Doctors told him to quit smoking but he clings to his stogie. Unlighted, it shifts from one corner of his mouth to the other, pauses and then starts all over again.

On the Senate floor, he speaks with dignity, yielding gracefully when a colleague asks to interrupt.

Conducting investigations, he retains his suavity. But, as many a witness for all mall contractors and public utilities has commented, he's relentless, tenacious and persistent.

If his nomination is confirmed he will have 18½ years to serve on the supreme court before he is 70, the age proposed by President Roosevelt for justices to step down.

Black, who was 51 last February, is 27 years younger than the man whom the President chose him to succeed—Justice Willis Van Devanter. Van Devanter retired in June at 78.

Feast Introductions Old

After we have shared a meal with someone, we feel much better acquainted, don't we? The custom of introducing strangers to one another at a feast dates from the time of the earliest men of whom we have any record. When a tribesman brought home a bride from a neighboring tribe, it was natural that his friends should look upon the stranger with suspicion. She might be possessed of evil powers. She might be the cause of calamity among them. So, in order to make her one of themselves, a feast was prepared. Meat was roasted upon a great fire, and the newcomer shared the food with her husband's people. Then the captive woman was considered a member of the tribe, and she was no longer feared by those among whom she had been brought to live.

Basques Solved Caste Question

The Basques are one of the oldest peoples in Europe and have lived in their mountain home in northern Spain and southwestern France from pre-Aryan times, and their language, peculiar to itself, is said to be older than any Aryan tongues. They early solved the question of caste by declaring every Basque a noble, and, although they acknowledged the king of Spain as their ruler, they regarded him only as an equal. Before they would acknowledge him it was necessary for him to come into their country and swear under their sacred oak tree to abide by their ancient rights, or "fueros." Even then they gave him no title. Their king might be the Holy Roman Emperor, but to them he was just plain "senor."

Flying Lizards in Malaya

Flying lizards are found in Malaya. The wings of these creatures consist of the outward extension of the ribs covered with skin. When at rest they are able to bring the skin-covered ribs to their side, but extend them when they leap from one perch to another. These wings would be more correctly described as gliders, for they spread out almost like the wings of a small airplane, supporting the lizard as it travels through the air.
